HR Paddy Ashdown: PIC session was encouraging, optimistic	BHT, Hayat, FTV, RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 3 ‘Terzic praised, Cavic warned’, Oslobodjenje pg 8, mentioned on cover ‘BiH soon reaching turning-point’ – According to the High Representative, Paddy Ashdown, Thursday’s Peace Implementation Council session is one of the most encouraging and the most optimistic ones so far, as far as BiH is concerned. PIC Steering Board concluded that BiH was at the historical crossroad of choice and the issue is whether it is able to bring the reform processes to the end. “The big block now is police reform. If it is not to be carried out on the basis of three principles presented by the European Commission: establishment of legislative and budgetary control at state level, establishment of police regions based on police efficiency not police control, and establishment of police structure that will not be under any political influence, BiH will receive no permission on May 19 to head toward the European integrations. All in all, this has been extremely constructive and optimistic meeting”, said Ashdown, in an interview for BiH media. PIC welcomes progress achieved by the BiH Government and in RS. “BiH authorities should complete the Feasibility Study terms, and there is another relevant issue, which is public broadcasting system, since HDZ opposes the proposed solutions. It asks for ethnical channel to be created which presents no part of the Feasibility Study and it opposes the Dayton Peace Agreement. Moreover, RS authorities have to continue transfer of war crime indictees to The Hague, including Radovan Karadzic and Ratko Mladic. BiH Prime Minister, Adnan Terzic’s government still has some issues to solve, and they should be completed within 6 weeks, before May 19”, said Ashdown asked what BiH authorities should do next. PIC praises defense reform. This reform meets the final technical term, necessary for BiH’s admittance to Partnership for Peace.

HR Ashdown meets with EU's Solana: Transfer of ICTY indictees has to be accelerated	Pink, Oslobodjenje pg 3 'Obstructions in RS reduced/softened', Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'Significant progress needed to be made by May', Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'No nearing to EU without police reform', announced on cover 'BiH on historic turning point' by M.Cubro, FENA – The High Representative, Paddy Ashdown, said that the transfers of the indicted war crimes suspects to the Hague Tribunal must not only be continued but also accelerated. "The ten-year old policy of obstruction in the RS is giving in to the constructive engagement in cooperation with the ICTY", Ashdown told the EU High Representative for the Common Foreign and Security Policy, Javier Solana, on Wednesday evening in Brussels. However, Ashdown stressed that "additional efforts must be made to ensure that all indicted war crime suspects are brought to justice and this process cannot be completed as long as Radovan Karadzic and Ratko Mladic are at large", the spokesperson of the OHR in Banja Luka, Ljiljana Radetic quoted Ashdown as saying at a press conference on Thursday. Commenting on the reports that Ratko Mladic is still hiding in Belgrade, Ashdown said that the "matter of Ratko Mladic's surrender to the Hague Tribunal should be a matter of soldier's honor, considering that his subordinates are prepared to answer for their acts before the War Crimes Tribunal, which they had committed under his orders". Welcoming the progress BiH has achieved in fulfilling the conditions from the Feasibility Study, including the judiciary, customs and taxes, Ashdown and Solana agreed that BiH must focus on achieving substantial progress in all remaining priorities set out in the Feasibility Study. Visible progress must be made by mid May when the EC experts will visit BiH and assess the progress achieved.

BiH CoM Chairman Terzic addresses PIC, PIC discuss status of reforms in BiH	Pink, BHT, FTV, RTRS, Oslobođenje pg 8 'To define BiH's obligations for start of talks', Dnevni List, pg 4 'Negotiations in May after all', by NINA, Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'No nearing to EU without police reform', announced on cover 'BiH on historic turning point' by M.Cubro, FENA – BiH Council of Ministers Chair Adnan Terzic on Thursday presented the members of the Peace Implementation Council (PIC) in Brussels with the letter that was addressed to him by the EC Enlargement Commissioner, Olli Rehn, and with the activities BiH institutions will take for the purpose of completing the remaining commitments defined in the letter. Terzic welcomed this letter, because it confirms the preparedness of the EU to accept BiH's next step towards European integration, was announced by the BiH Council of Ministers. It is necessary to clearly define the commitments of BiH and activities of the European Commission, which would lead to receiving concordance for beginning of negotiations on SAA during May this year. Participants of the PIC meeting talked about the ongoing reformatory processes in BiH, and analyzed the cooperation with the ICTY, the beginning of police reform, defense reform and review of fulfilling the elements defined by the Feasibility Study. PIC recognizes and accepts the progress realized in cooperating with the Hague , stressing that this process has finally taken the right road and that results are evident, but notes that it must be completed by apprehending the chief suspects, Karadzic and Mladic, in order to achieve full cooperation with the ICTY. The Council commends the ongoing defense reform as well as the fact that the rate of staffing the Defense Ministry, Operational Command and the Joint Command has exceeded 65 percent. This reform has fulfilled the last technical condition necessary for BiH's admission into the PfP. At the meeting, it was underlined that BiH authorities at all levels are prepared to launch negotiations on the future structure of the police forces as one of the key preconditions for the Feasibility Study. It is necessary to reach consensus in line with the three defined principles of the European Commission. Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'Abolishment of entities' defence ministries' carried parts of PIC Communique supporting the work of DRC.

Cavic at PIC session: Compromise solution for police reforms must be identified	BHT, RTRS, Glas Srpske pg 2 'Srpska is not "a black hole" – Dragan Cavic, RS President, at the PIC session in Brussels, expressed conviction that the PIC session would stress that RS and F BiH are permanent and stable categories, stipulated by Dayton, as well as that any change of its status is out of question. In a phone statement to SRNA, Cavic said: "We have entered the phase when RS is no longer presented in PIC communiqués as "black hole", the factor of impediment and dissatisfaction. On the contrary, RS is serving general progress, which is encouraging to everybody." On police reform, he noted that it is clear that a compromise solution must be found by middle May.
Terzic visiting Luxembourg	BHT – BiH Delegation lead by BiH Council of Ministers Chair Adnan Terzic, have arrived to Luxembourg . BHT found out that Terzic is encouraged with the fact that, the country which preside with EU, welcomes progress which has been achieved in BiH. Luxembourg will support BiH in order to get recommendation of European Commission, for start negotiations on Stabilization and Association Agreement with EU.
European Parliament's Brok: European Parliament ready to support beginning of negotiations between BiH and EU	Pink, BHT, Hayat, RTRS, Oslobodjenje pg 7 'Support to start of talks with EU', Dnevni List, pg 2 'Possible downsizing of EUFOR troops in BiH', by D. Polovina-Mandic, Vecernji List, pg 10 'About withdrawal of 2000 members of EUFOR', by Eldina Medunjanin, FENA – The Chair of the Board for Foreign Affairs of the European Parliament, Elmar Brok, on Thursday said that this institution is prepared to support the beginning of negotiations of BiH with the European Union on Stabilization and Association. After meeting with BiH Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Security, Barisa Colak, Brok said that he would inform the officials in Brussels on BiH's activities in realizing the initiated reforms, i.e. meeting the conditions set out in the Feasibility Study. In this context, the European Parliament official indicated the importance of stabilizing the situation in BiH, underlining the role of EUFOR in this field. Brok announced the possibility of reducing the EUFOR contingent from 7.000 to 5.000 under the condition that the total situation in BiH guarantees progress in view of achieving a certain level of stability. "We have ascertained that substantial progress has been realized in BiH, but we have also indicated the steps that must be taken in order to approach the European standards and commence negotiations on a Stabilization and Association Agreement, and fulfill the conditions for joining the Partnership for Peace", said Colak. The delegation of the European Parliament, which is paying a visit to BiH, comprises the members of the Board for Foreign Affairs and the Sub-board for Security and Defense.

Former HR Petritsch: Conference “BiH 10 years after Dayton ” to take place in Geneva in October	Pink, FTV, Oslobođenje pg 2 ‘To free from presence of international organizations’, Dnevni Avaz pg 2, Vecernji List, pg 10 ‘Withdrawal of OHR’, by dj, Nezavisne Novine pg 11 ‘BiH cannot enter EU as long as OHR exists’ by A.Sisic, FENA – The President of the Main Advisory Board of the Association BiH 2005, the former high representative to BiH, Wolfgang Petritsch, on Thursday in Sarajevo announced the Conference “BiH 10 years since Dayton and further”, which will take place October 20 and 21 in Geneva in organization of this association. Petritsch said that the Association BiH 2005 is not a state or an international organization, but that it is a civic initiative with international composition, because apart from BiH citizens, it also gathers the friends of this country from the entire world. Aim of the conference is to provide the platform for an informal dialogue on the future of BiH, and in the spirit of self-responsibility, this initiative is managed by BiH citizens, while the friends from abroad are helping them, said Petritsch. He added that this would not be another in the series of conferences on BiH because the preparations have been in progress for the past two years, including a series of seminars, and that Geneva would be the peak of Association’s past activities. Petritsch hopes that the conference would adopt the “manifest of the next step”, which would summarize the meaning of BiH’s future. In other words, he expects the conference to give a clear vision of BiH, which will respond to the standards of a modern European state, without massive international presence and current HR powers. Speaking about the choice of Geneva for the place of holding the conference, Association’s Director Jakob Finci said that the organizer wishes to once again attract the attention of international political and economic institutions to BiH, and Geneva is the ideal place for this. He said that the participants would include the friends of BiH, who are well informed about the country, and that their participation would enable a complete insight into what the world knows of BiH and how the country can be helped. It was announced that the conference would be attended by among others Donald Hays, Marrack Goulding, Christian Schwarz-Schilling...When asked whether the former Principal Deputy High Representative, Donald Hays , could be regarded as a “friend” of BiH after his latest statements, Petritsch said that his statements were misinterpreted. Hays is concerned about BiH, his care and love for BiH are unquestionable, and this gives him the right to criticize the inactivity and passivity of domestic authorities and the citizens, said Petritsch.

US Congress Sub-committee demands change of BiH Constitution	Hayat, FTV, RTRS, Nezavisne Novine pg 6 'Reform of BiH is necessary' by VoA – The Sub-Committee for Europe of the Committee for international Relations at the US Congress House of Representatives concluded that almost a decade after the Dayton Agreement, BiH is still incapable of achieving the main foreign policy goal, which is admission to EU and NATO. It concluded it is high time BiH Constitution changed.
US professor Hitchner: Constitutional changes are necessary	Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'Constitutional changes are necessary' by Sead Numanovic – DA brings an interview with the Director of the international programmes at the Dayton University and a professor at Tufts University, Bruce Hitchner, who addressed the US Congress' Subcommittee and briefed them on the situation in BiH. He urged the immediate start of the discussion on the constitutional changes and the changes itself, for which he believes would ensure that the elections in 2006 are a result of carried reforms. He insists that the international community should assist in this process, because it would also alter its presence in BiH. "If BiH starts with the EU stabilisation and association process, that those negotiations also have to include the issue of the High Representative's Bonn powers," says Hitchner adding that it would had been mistake is this was done earlier. "I think that BiH has to have a Constitution which would acknowledge the strong centralized authorities, some authorities should be given to entities and certain functions to the municipalities," concludes the professor.
Dani int with the new UK Ambassador Rycroft: BiH's admission to EU is British interest!	Dani pgs 46 – 47 'BiH's admission to EU is British interest!' by Irham Ceko – In an interview to magazine, the new UK Ambassador to BiH, Matthew Rycroft, responds to the question whether the political future of BiH is in question by saying that "everyone is committed to single state structure in the country. We can discuss what is beneath it. But the very top of that structure is not questionable." Expressing a support for the HR Paddy Ashdown's work, Rycroft adds that BiH's is currently on the right path leading towards joining the EU and NATO, stressing this is also in an interest of the UK.

Tihic says BiH Army's 7th Corps part of history of BiH's defence	Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Tihic: We can join NATO only without entities' armies', Dnevni List, pg 5 'Tihic for single army and ministry', by NINA, FENA – BiH Presidency member Sulejman Tihic said in Travnik on Thursday at the ceremony marking the 11th anniversary since the establishment of the RBiH Army's 7th Corps that this Corps is a part of the history of the defence of BiH, which should not be studied only by historians, but should be treasured by present and future generations as well. Addressing former 7th Corps officers and soldiers Tihic said that this Corps was established as a force for liberating the country and that its composition was Bosnian with soldiers from Central Bosnia and Bosanska Krajina, as well as soldiers from all other parts of BiH. He said that some are trying to present as equal individual crimes committed by members of the RBiH Army with planned projects, systematic and mass crimes committed by the aggressor and its supporters. "This is simply not possible and we will not allow this. This is why it is so important to establish the truth about the aggression against BiH and the suffering of our citizens. We need to be persistent and determined in this. All criminals must face justice. This is important because of the past and the future", Tihic said. He said that failure to adequately establish the truth about past events should not be allowed to become a cause of new conflicts in the future. Courts alone will not be enough for establishing the truth. A joint state commission on the suffering of BiH citizens also needs to contribute to this, he said. Tihic also commented on reform of the defence and security system. He said that BiH needs to have a single defence system, without entity armies and ministries of defence. Only with such a defence structure BiH can become a member of the Partnership for Peace and NATO.

Lozancic: Covic could stay in Presidency in Parliament supports him	Oslobodjenje pg 6 'BiH Parliament to decide on Covic', mentioned on cover, by Az. Kalamujic – In an interview to daily, the FBiH President, Niko Lozancic, says that Dragan Covic could keep the position of the BiH Presidency member if the BiH Parliament decides to take his side. "HDZ Presidency has decided that [Paddy] Ashdown's decision was unconstitutional, illegal... However, HDZ doesn't want to be a judge. We expect from the Parliament to take a stance on this issue at the plenary session of both Houses. So, we do not think about Covic's successor, but will be conscious of the delegations finally start to work. If that happens, I don't exclude possibility to see Mr Covic stay in Presidency. Otherwise the message to the public will be that BiH Parliament doesn't want to deal with protection of the Constitution and the law of this country," said Lozancic. He also harshly criticised Ashdown's response to his letter [in which he put his mandate at HR's disposal], saying that HR "promotes the condition in which to make institutions of the BiH authorities worthless thus to show that the HR is the only power in BiH." Slobodna Bosna pgs 22-25 'Dozens of domestic politicians cruse the world and spend money; rest is happy to just nod heads at everything Ashdown tells them', mentioned on cover, by Suzana Mijatovic – SB also carries an interview with Lozancic in which he presents the same opinions as the ones mentioned above.
DL: Ivo Miro Jovic to replace Covic?	Dnevni List, pg 4 'Ivo Miro Jovic the most serious candidate!?', by Nermin Bise – According to unofficial information the daily has got from sources close to the Presidency of HDZ BiH, the said body will take a decision according to which an MP in the BiH Parliament, Ivo Miro Jovic (HDZ), will be nominated to replace the removed member of BiH Presidency, Dragan Covic. DL goes on to say that contrary to statements of the HDZ President, Barisa Colak, who said after the last session of the HDZ Presidency that the body did not discuss the issue of Covic replacement, the HDZ Presidency did discuss the issue, whilst the public had been served a different story when the HDZ asked for resignation of the High Representative. DL's source believes that the whole scheme was prepared by Covic, the IC and leaderships of the SDA and SDS. The source also claims that Covic and Colak have secured the support of SDS and SDA's MPs for Jovic.

Colak wants BiH Parliament to declare itself about Covic removal	Slobodna Dalmacija, pg 18 'Covic without successor', by B. Magas – Carries the President of HDZ BiH, Barisa Colak, as commenting on the issue of possible successor to Dragan Covic. Colak says the HDZ has not and will not discuss about the name of a possible successor until the BiH Parliament has declared itself about the Covic removal. Colak notes that the HDZ expects the BiH Parliament to clearly declare itself about the recent decisions of the High Representative, for which the HDZ believes to be against the Constitution. "We also think that the Parliament has to condemn such behaviour of the High Representative and that he should not be allowed to do something like that any more. Namely, we request from international representatives that we equally apply and respect European laws and regulations", says Colak.
Feral Tribune: Lamenting over Croat fate a lucrative job	Feral Tribune, pgs 9-12 'Croats in Bosnia', by Ivica Djikic, Igor Lasic – Carries an article that is dedicated to the current situation in BiH, with a special focus on the decision of the High Representative to remove Dragan Covic from the BiH Presidency. Saying that "the lamenting over the Croat fate" has become a lucrative job in BiH, as seen in reactions by many people from both BiH and Croatia, Feral says the reactions are just a fake excuse to avoid the story about the criminal nature of the Croat political elite in BiH from the early 90s until present days. Feral also carries professor Slavo Kukic, who comments on HR Ashdown: "Special story about Ashdown is related to the fact that he stimulates all the works that fortify national divisions and that's why I think that the IC must learn a lesson from his example, in order to preserve the credibility in BiH. They have to withdraw him at once and bring a man that feels something good for the country".
VL on Croatian authorities, HR Ashdown's behaviour	Vecernji List, pg 24 'When Ashdown commends Zagreb and 'tells off' Belgrade!', by Milan Ivkosic – Carries an op-ed in which the author comments on the behaviour of Croatian authorities regarding processes in BiH and the role of the High Representative, Paddy Ashdown, in the whole scheme. When it comes to the former, Ivkosic harshly criticizes the Croatian authorities, both the previous and current ones, saying that the authorities are not doing anything to protect the sovereignty of the Croats in BiH because even Croatia is losing its sovereignty more and more. Regarding HR Ashdown, Ivkosic comments on HR's statements in which he commended Croatian constructive role in processes in BiH. Ivkosic writes: "After that and after removal of Dragan Covic, he (Ashdown) appears in photos in Croatian media, gives compliments to Mesic, Racan and Racan and allegedly criticizes Belgrade – what is that if not the imperial British cynicism with a clear formula – I am commending the one I tread on, and I am telling off the one I'm favourable to".

VL: SIPA Director Novic ignores BiH authorities' decisions	Vecernji List, pg 13 'Novic asking for foreigners' opinion about Government's decision', by Dejan Jazvic – VL reports that the Director of SIPA, Sredoje Novic, asked for "opinion" of the OHR and EUPM regarding the recommendation of the Legislative-legal Committee of BiH Council of Ministers, which warned Novic that his decision to appoint his former deputy Dragan Lukac as the Head of Department for protection of VIPs was illegal. VL also carries an anonymous source close to the BiH CoM, which labels Novic's behaviour as impermissible. The source adds that the BiH CoM could soon discuss the issue of Novic's behaviour. On top of this, VL argues that Novic should have retired since the law says that a Police official with 40 years of service has to retire, and Novic apparently meets the criteria.
Boundary disputes in Bos. Kostajnica	Glas Srpske cover pg splash 'Border across the house' by N.D. – The daily carries comments of the Bosanska Kostajnica population, who are concerned over the boundary placement in their town. The Serb officials claim that Bosniak and Croat outvoted them, hence the boundary lines sometimes divides the houses in two parts. Namely, Croatian authorities do not recognise the Dayton provision that Una river should represent the boundary line.
Update to SDS-PDP relations: PDP does not fully support SDS	Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'SDS does not have a blank support of PDP' by V. Popovic – PDP is not offering a blank support to RS Government for its every proposal and will define a stance on each issue depending from an offered solution, as PDP delegate at RS NA Vitomir Tomic has stated Thursday at RS NA session. He made this statement upon the refusal of PDP to support the Government's draft law on forestry Wednesday. Tomic avoided giving a direct answer after he was asked whether PDP had decided to make this move in order to show PM Pero Bukejllovic he has no Assembly majority. 'PDP had supported the election of RS Government, yet this does not mean we will blindly support its draft laws', Tomic said.

War Crimes

Oslobodjenje/Slobodna Bosna: Adnan and Zaric took part in Srebrenica crime	Oslobodjenje cover splash, pgs 4-5 'Andan and Zaric took part in Srebrenica crime' by Avdo Avdic – A number of police and intelligence officers, including the RS Police Director, Dragan Andan, and the Deputy Head of BiH Intelligence Agency [OSA] Risto Zaric, are allegedly listed in the Srebrenica Working Group's report as the persons who took a part in 1995 events in this region. Daily claims that a group of Srebrenica citizens disappointed with the fact that the Working Group submitted this list to the perpetrators and not to them, thus they approached to Oslobodjenje with the list of about 100 names from the report. Author also notes that daily's sources confirmed that these names actually are on the list submitted to the OHR and judiciary. It mainly includes the members of the Bratunac and Zvornik brigades and Drina Corps. Slobodna Bosna cover splash 'Who are the Srebrenica crimes perpetrators at the high ranking positions?', pgs 18-21 'SB discloses most protected document in BiH' by Mehmed Pargan – SB also publishes some names allegedly appearing at the list prepared by the Srebrenica Working Group. In addition to Andan and Zaric, SB points out to Sinisa Karan, current head of SIPA's financial intelligence office, and adds that several sources from BiH Prosecution and the Group claim that RS Interior Minister, Darko Matijasevic, is also on the list.

ICTY official announces start of transfer of war crimes cases to BiH courts	RHB, Pink, Oslobodjenje pgs 4-5 'Request for transfer of seven cases', Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'Hague Prosecution proposes transfer of seven cases to local courts', Nezavisne Novine pg 2 'Transfer of Hague cases onto local courts commenced' by ONASA, Glas Srpske pg 2 'Eight demands to the Hague' by M.Dz, ONASA – Representative of the Hague Tribunal Secretariat in BiH Mathias Hellman said in Banja Luka on Thursday that the process of transferring of Hague's cases to national courts has begun and that the Prosecution so far forwarded to the Council for submission seven cases related to war crimes in BiH. These cases relate to 12 accused: Zeljko Mejakic, Momcilo Gruban, Dusan Fuster and Dusko Knezevic for crimes committed in Omarska and Keraterm camps near Prijedor; Gojko Jankovic, Dragan Zelenovic and Radovan Stankovic for rapes and other crimes committed at various location in Foca; Milan and Sredoje Lukic for crimes committed in Visegrad; and Dragomir Milosevic for shelling of Sarajevo . Hellman told reporters the Tribunal's Prosecution has also asked for ceding of processes against six persons accused for crimes committed in Croatia to domestic courts. These are Rahim Ademi, Mirko Norac, Vladimir Kovacevic, Mile Mrksic, Miroslav Radic and Veselin Sljivancanin. Hellman said it is still not possible to state when these cases will appear before domestic judiciary because full procedure must be respect, including additional submissions from defence and possible complaints on the transfer.

Draskovic repeats Serbian secret service knows where is Mladic	Oslobodjenje pg 3 'BIA knows where is Mladic' by B. Boskov – SCG Foreign Minister, Vuk Draskovic, has sent a written statement to media repeating his statement given to the Financial Times last week that the Serbian Intelligence Agency [BIA] must know where is Ratko Mladic. The BIA director, Rade Bulatovic, reacted on Wednesday deeming Draskovic's statement to be 'damaging and senseless.' However, in this issue Draskovic was supported by the non-parliamentarian Serbian Demo Christian Party [DHSS] of the former Serbian Justice Minister Vladan Batic. DHSS vice president, Zivojin Stjepic, told a press conference that Mladic is in Belgrade, giving a details of his movement. Dnevni List, pg 5 'Mladic hiding in military barracks and two apartments in Belgrade', by De. L. also carried statement by Batic's party.
GS comments on Leakey-Schook statements re Karadzic, Mladic's whereabouts	Glas Srpske pg 5 'On short leash' by M.Dzepina – The author is referring to the latest statements Steven Schook and David Leakey gave regarding whereabouts of Radovan Karadzic and Ratko Mladic. She notes that their statements are not harmonised at all. Ostoja Barasin, military analyst, says that representatives of NATO and EUFOR adjust their statements in accordance with political needs, stressing: "Hence, they expert pressure against local politicians, aimed at achieving certain political goals, that cannot be achieved by some other means." He is of the view that none of them knows where Mladic and Karadzic are, and they only speculate on their whereabouts.

Letter by Milan Lukic: I will go to the Hague only after those who had been giving orders to me

Nezavisne Novine pg 7, announced on cover
'I will go to the Hague only after those who had been giving orders to me' by Milan Lukic – Hague indictee at large Milan Lukic has sent a letter to NW, in which he criticizes the fact his brother was killed by people who only wanted to preserve what they have looted during the war both from Muslims and from Serbs. He claims people who had killed his brother had committed crimes in Visegrad and are now "bosses" of Visegrad and Foca – Brane Savovic, Risto Perisic and Radomir Njegus. Lukic claims:
'All Muslims in Visegrad and Foca were killed upon their orders'. He says he was working at the police at the beginning of the war and his commander was Risto Perisic, while Perisic's chief was Branimir Savovic. 'Only after they arrive to the place they belong to be – in the Hague – only after they reply to their real names – criminals – I would surrender, and I will surrender in order for Muslims to discover truth about their beloved ones, truth on how they have went missing because I know a lot, and I wish to express my condolences to all of them, they have earned it', Lukic has stated in his letter. He also claims Savovic and Perisic have got rich by selling information on mass graves of Muslims to foreigners and he claims they have the information on mass graves only because they were the ones who have buried killed people in those mass graves during the war. He denies he was a close friend of Radovan Karadzic but he stressed: 'Mladic was and will remain, in my opinion, a true hero and idol and Karadzic a leader of my people and, thanks to them, genocide from the previous (WW II) war against Serb people had not repeated'. He concludes his letter as follows: 'I am ready at any minute to voluntarily appear at the Court, whether it is in Sarajevo or in the Hague,
and to stand behind my words because what I am telling is true and truth and justice are slow yet attainable, and I will do so after I see indictments were brought against true criminals and after I get the possibility to look them in their eyes'.
(NW editorial board noted the letter was sent to them from a protected e-mail address, and the only thing they were able to discover is that a server the sender had used is located in Brasil).

EUPM denies RS Government press release regarding mtg. Bukejlovic-Heller, talks on Srebrenica report	Nezavisne Novine pg 5 'Heller did not discuss Srebrenica Work Group with Bukejlovic' by N. N. – EUPM Thursday denied claims brought in a press statement of RS Government's Public Relations Bureau, in which it was stated that EUPM Advisor for RS Uve Heller thinks the Work Group for Implementation of Srebrenica Commission conclusions has done its talks in a professional and quality manner. EUPM press statement reads: "EUPM emphasizes that the quotes attributed to Heller were incorrect. During a meeting with PM Bukejlovic, he had discussed neither professionalism nor issues regarding the Work Group. The point of the meeting with Bukejlovic was to discuss certain issues with regard to annexes to the report."

War medal winners held protest rally in Sarajevo , FBiH Government drafted new law on their rights

RHB, BHT, FTV, Hayat, Dnevni Avaz cover page, pg 3 'Golden Lily winners requested for resignations', Oslobodjenje pg 8, mentioned on cover 'Golden Lilies tried to enter FBiH Government building by force', Dnevni List, pg 3 'Prime Minister Hadzipasic not giving in to Golden lilies', by Mensud Zorlak, Vecernji List, pg 10 'Police prevents 200 veterans from entering Government', by Eldina Medunjanin, Nezavisne Novine pg 2 'Special police prevented clash with ministers' by Ra.R – Sarajevo Canton police officers prevented intrusion of demobilized veterans of BiH Army into the FBiH Government building on Thursday. More than 300 winners of the most significant war decorations (Golden Lily) organized a protest rally demanding from the FBiH Government to regulate their rights and status.

FTV, Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'New law as of January 1 2006' – At a session in Sarajevo on Thursday, the FBiH Government passed the draft law on right of the war medal winners and their families, and according to this law they have a right to monthly payment in amounts from 25 to 40% of average salary in FBiH. These persons stated that FBiH authorities deceived this population in its last pre-election campaign, because they said they will solve the status of this population but they actually repealed their only income of 129 KM, which was regulated by decision of the former government. Implementation of the law on rights of veterans and their families should start on January 1 2006 .

against economic regionalisation
of BiH

Oslobodjenje pg 3 'RS Government against regionalisation of BiH', Nezavisne Novine pg 4, announced on cover 'Project of five economic regions in BiH suspended' by D.Risojevic – At Thursday's session in Banja Luka, RS Government suspended project of European Union on five economic regions in BiH (EURED), which intersects the entity boundaries. RS Government Thursday called on municipalities not to involve in EURED project before a prior consultation with Pero Bukejlovic, RS Premier. RS Minister of Economic Affairs and Coordination Jasmin Seferovic said that certain models of economic regions were unacceptable and the Government demands suspension of projects until stances of entities' Governments and District Brcko are agreed. The EC delegation to BiH, under whose patronage the project is implemented, expressed surprise over this decision. Frane Maroevic, EC delegation Spokesperson, assessed that "the statement of Minister Seferovic shows misunderstanding of the project and functioning of the regional economic development." It is wired to EC delegation why Minister Seferovic, who presented RS Government stance, is sitting at EURED Steering Board. Maroevic added: "We will continue supporting these projects." Dusko Jaksic, Director of Banja Luka Economic Institute, commented that the concept on five economic regions is completely unacceptable. He reproached EC for having failed to include single RS experts in creation of study and regional division.

TV PINK – President of RS employers Damir Miljevic said that now is too late to cancel the project and that people cannot wait any longer. "The whole issue is about the politics since RS Government did not participate in division of economic regions" said Miljevic.

BH TV 1, NTV Hayat, RTRS, Glas Srpske pg 2 'Regions will not be accepted' by G.Dakic also reported on the issue.
