VN: Interview with Ashdown during Belgrade visit	Vecernje novosti, pg. 2 'Time is not on the side of RS' by Roman Petrovski mentioned on cover 'Serbs, do not waste time' – High Representative Paddy Ashdown gave an interview for Vecernje novosti on Monday, during which he stated: 'I had very good talks with Prime Minister Kostunica and Minister of Foreign Affairs Draskovic. I informed them on my concern over the possibility that RS is becoming an obstacle to reforms. I told them time was running out. My task is to make BiH a functional state. However, there are persons that obstruct this process and things can quite change if there are changes in the American administration. Therefore, I will tell to colleagues in RS: Do not waste time, accelerate reforms'. Ashdown also state that BiH would join the EU process of stabilization and association and it will become a member of PfP some time this or next year. HR Ashdown complimented RS regarding the efforts taken in defense reforms but he also emphasized the necessity for RS to prove it complies to obligations towards the international community.
DA editorial said Ashdown could not chose better place than Belgrade to warn RS	Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'Ashdown's decisions' by Edina Sarac – Author writes that HR Paddy Ashdown could not have chosen better place to send a message to RS authorities that it was a final time from Belgrade. Referring to his current visit and statement given above, author argues that RS authorities anyway listen to Vojislav Kostunica better than the authorities in Sarajevo. Noting that due to such short time before NATO summit there are plenty of space to speculate what is going on [especially having in mind recent visits of Dragan Cavic and twice of Dragan Kalinic to Kostunica], however underlines that no matter which information is true, the fact is that RS was never is this kind of situation, which is just further stressed with Ashdown's warning made in Belgrade. "It is up to leaders in smaller BiH entitiy to chose – whether they are to play for draw or they would lose a party of their life in chess-mat position," concludes editorial.

Djeric on possibility for RS authorities to arrest Karadzic	BHTV 1, Oslobođenje pg 4 'RS will not arrest Karadzic before summit' by Onasa, Nezavisne Novine pg 2 'Cooperation with The Hague by the end of year'; Glas Srpske pg 2 'The Hague is the hardest exam', Blic, pg. RS7 'Arresting of indictees is crucial issue for RS' by J. D. – RS Interior Minister Zoran Djeric stated on Monday that even after the NATO Istanbul summit and regardless of whether BiH would be admitted to the Partnership for Peace then, the issue of cooperation with the ICTY would remain outstanding for the RS. After meeting Srpsko Sarajevo Public Security Centre, Djeric told journalists in Pale that the arrest of ICTY indictees is the key issue at this moment and that RS will, "with more concrete activities", contribute to it being resolved by the end of the year. Asked whether Radovan Karadzic would be arrested by the end of the month, Djeric said: "I wouldn't link this issue just to 28 June, because the issue of [cooperation between the RS and ICTY could not be resolved by that date. But we expect help from other institutions." RTRS – Djeric added that RS Interior Ministry would do everything to demonstrate that it is determined to implement activities which would raise cooperation with the Hague tribunal to a level which enabling BiH to be admitted to the Partnership for Peace.
Humphreys on arrest of war crimes	RHB, RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'RS authorities given names of 3 people that have to arrest' – Media refer to a brief interview by Michael Humphreys, the Head of EC delegation to BiH, published on Monday in Banja Luka newspapers Nezavisne Novine. In the interview, Humphreys expresses his belief that RS authorities will soon undertake activities aimed at arresting war crimes suspects. Owing to this reason, he does not exclude the possibility that the claims of some recently removed police officers of RS that international community had given a list with three names of the Hague indictees to RS authorities, whom they need to arrest by Istanbul Summit of NATO are true. Dragan Lukac, his deputy, said that during the course of last year, SIPA spent around BAM 3.2 million for the purchase of equipment, uniforms and weapons. He noted that SIPA had almost a double amount than it spent at its disposal, "but this money has been left in the state budget". Lukac stressed that 120 people are currently employed at SIPA, noting that only one out of its six departments has started to operate partially. And that is department for criminal information. Director Novic stressed that the amount of BAM 6.6 million (as planned in the budget for this year) is insufficient to support the commencement of work. On this he added: "All analyses conducted showed that the amount of BAM 28 million, or to say at least BAM 23 million, is necessary for a complete establishment of SIPA." Lukac stressed: "Just to avoid any misunderstanding – SIPA could not have been established by now owing to absence of its accommodation." Novic also added: "We all keep talking about the most important department within SIPA, which should be in charge of special support. Namely this department will be dealing with arrests of war crime suspects and fight against organised crime. If we all talk about this Department, it would be logical thing to establish this unit as soon as possible."

Political issues

BiH-Croatia Interstate Council held in Zagreb	RHB, Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'Mesic: By the end of year agreement on Ploce port' by Husein Orahovac, Oslobođenje pg 5 'Two agreements and Guidelines for future', mentioned on cover 'Guidelines for future' by Darijan Zadravec, Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'Refugee returns by the end of year', Dnevni List front and pg 5 'Ploce Port, passage through Neum, double citizenship are still disputable issues' not signed, Slobodna Dalmacija pg 7 'Fundamental issue – return of refugees' by T. After the meeting, representatives of the two countries signed the Contract on mutual fulfilling of court decisions in sanctioning matters, the Contract on Evading Double Taxation, as well as the Guidelines for future cooperation between BiH and Croatia. BiH Presidency Chair Sulejman Tihic stated that the guidelines for future cooperation have a special political meaning: "[It] is very important document for us and it brings the quality in the relations between these two countries, it establishes strategies for these two states in the area of investments, energy, traffic infrastructure of free zones, etc." He added that the governments of both countries have been tasked to operatively resolve the matter of refugee return by the end of the year. "All three ethnic groups must be respected as constituent. Croatia will continue to help Croatian community in BiH and to advance cooperation with entire BiH ", stated Croatian President Stjepan Mesic. RTRS, BHTV 1, FTV – "We agreed that by the end of this year we had to make a progress in solving rest of questions opened. VN: Ashdown on Dayton Peace Agreement	Vecernje novosti, pg. 2 'Time is not on the side of RS' by Roman Petrovski mentioned on cover 'Serbs, do not waste time' – High Representative Paddy Ashdown gave an interview for Vecernje novosti on Monday, was asked whether he was promoting the policy of the international community that diminishes the competence of RS with an aim to change the Dayton Agreement and abolish RS, HR Ashdown stated that was not true. 'RS must understand it is an entity and not an independent state. The Dayton Agreement is a two-way street. One part of the Dayton Agreement protects the entities and the other part deals with development of a joint state. RS does only what is suitable for strengthening of the entity and it avoids things in relation to a joint state. I have clearly said to RS I would not change the Dayton Agreement, only people of BiH can change it. Nevertheless, should RS or anyone else in BiH makes the state non-functional in relation to the Dayton, then it must be changed as well', HR Paddy Ashdown stated.
Comments to new Croat Block party	Oslobodjenje pgs 4-5 'Croat Block represents decayed ideas' by A. Terzic – The President of the NHI Kresimir Zubak says that the establishment of new Croat party – Croat Block – is further division from inside HDZ. He adds that the party's appearance on BiH political scene is nothing new, adding that his party would not go into Coalition with the Croat block. HDZ Spokesperson Pero Pavlovic comments: "We see nothing bad in establishment of Croat block. All those who want to organize politically in a different way have a right to do that. However if somebody tries to build political career by burying HDZ and to make voters body by telling lies, than that will be only bad for them." Author comments that other Croat, especially moderate ones, are not ready to cooperate with newly established party.

NN editorial on Croat Block	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'Opportunism or radicalism!?' by Josip Blazevic – The author is writing about the establishment of new political party – Croat Block of BiH. He claims that the dissatisfied members of the HDZ formed this new party, which has expanded the Croat fragment of the political scene in BiH for another extremely right-oriented party. The important issues related to the establishment of this party are as follows, according to the author. The first is that speaking of the Croat electorate in BiH, which is inclined towards right-oriented political option, the electorate has now got an alternative to HDZ, still insufficiently strong to jeopardise the dominant role the HDZ is playing. The second reason is that the leaving of Marko Tokic, Ivan Bacak and their likes from HDZ shows that the politician inclined to opportunism, Dragan Covic, has taken over the full control over the party.
HDZ on Education Issue	Slobodna Dalmacija, pg 8, 'We shall survive all sanctions', mentioned on cover, by Darko Juka – Commenting on High Representative's decision to additionally fine HDZ cantonal boards over failure to harmonise cantonal laws on primary and secondary education with the state-level one, Pero Pavlovic, HDZBiH Spokesperson expresses regret over decision but says the HDZ will undoubtedly survive despite of everything. "In talks with other political parties and IC representatives, we want to reach a solution that would put the sanctions out of force as soon as possible and, at the same time, would meet demands by the IC representatives and contain the guarantees that HDZ has been speaking about all the time", he says. Pavlovic adds that IC objections refer to some technical issues and that use of language and curriculum are not being brought into question at all. Dnevni Avaz pg 11 'HDZ believes that acceptable solutions will be found' by M. Drinjakovic – In a statement to DA, Pavlovic says that HDZ will do everything as envisaged to make changes to the laws as requested. Jago Musa, Education Minister in Herzegovina Neretva Canton, stated that in the next two week, which is a deadline to meet obligations, this Canton has only to work on several corrections and making some article more clear.

SD on Paddy Ashdown's visit to Zagreb and Belgrade	Slobodna Dalmacija pg 15 'Paddy Ashdown as 'President' of region' by B. Kristo – Commenting on the recent visits that High Representative Paddy Ashdown has been paying to Zagreb and Belgrade, the author wonders as to why the HR is going there when thanks to his protector-like authorities he could resolve in BiH all the things because of which he goes to these two cities. The author also says that the HR goes to Zagreb to ask from the Croatian authorities to persuade Croat representatives in BiH to accept everything that the International Community in BiH thinks of, while the authorities in Belgrade should persuade the Serb authority representatives that BiH is their homeland actually. The author goes on to say that these two capitals are preoccupied with their own problems and therefore the HR's visits will not give some results. The author concludes the editorial by saying that regardless of motifs and reasons of the HR's visits to neighbouring countries someone should tell the HR that he is the HR for BiH only and not for the whole region.
DA says building of crosses in Stolac not yet stopped	Dnevni Avaz pg 8 'Order issuing authority for building crosses in Old City still have not reacted' by F. Inspector on that occasion demanded from those [apparently unknown] authorities that issued orders for building the crosses to remove them within a month. Turkovic says that "nobody wants to talk about the issue of illegal building in Old City, probably expecting that nobody will answer Capelj's order."
BiH responds on audit report	Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'BiH Presidency responds on over-spending' – Samir Musovic, Acting Chief Auditor, yesterday confirmed that the financial experts of the BiH Presidency yesterday afternoon forwarded responses to audit report on money wasting at BiH Presidency to the Audit Office for BiH Joint Institutions.

Audit reports into seven institutions in parliamentary procedure	Dnevni List, pg 6, 'If legal provision does not exist, there is no punishment', by Renata Radic – Samir Musovic, acting Chief Auditor, has confirmed to DL that the Office for auditing financial operations of BiH institutions will today send to parliamentary procedure the report on last year's financial operations of: BiH Presidency, Regulatory Agency for Communications, Standardization and Measuring, State Border Service, BiH Statistics Agency, Election Commission and the Ministries which are located in the joint institutions building. Contrary to practice so far, the reports will be grouped. Speaking of possible sanctions for unconscientious business-running, Musovic says: "In cases in which violations of valid regulations are found, Prosecutor's Office will consider the need for further procedure. In those where regulations do not exist and lack, Auditing office draws one's attention for regulations to be adopted, defined and improved".

Economic and judicial issues

CRA seeks extension of deadline to issue 3rd GSM licence

Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'RAK demands extension of deadline by 12 July' by F. Vele, Oslobođenje pg 6 'RAK demands 12 days for licence award', Dnevni List, pg 2, 'Postponement of decision on 3rd GSM license demanded', mentioned on cover, by J. Petrovic, Vecernji List, pg 4, 'Both Eronet and HT Mostar submitted applications for granting 3rd GSM license', by Dejan Jazvic and Slobodna Dalmacija, back page, 'Both HT Mostar and Eronet submitted applications', by M. Landeka – Amela Odobasic, the Regulatory Agency for Communications (RAK) Spokesperson, says that both candidates for the owner of the 3rd GSM license have submitted their requests and documentation, yet she leaves space open for a possibility for a request for additional documents to be submitted during the process of considering the applications. As for the FBiH Ministry of Traffic and Communication's request to RAK to extend the deadline, she says RAK did not find it necessary to allow for extension as both candidates had submitted documentation. Odobasic adds that RAK has sent a memo to the BiH Council of Ministers in order for it to extend the deadline for passing the decision on the 3rd GSM license until 12 July. She will not speculate on what would happen if Croatian Telekom in Zagreb makes a deal with FBiH Government on transfer of 49% of share in Eronet onto Croat Telecom (HT) Mostar but said that RAK would declare itself on the situation if it occurs.

On HT Zagreb's offer to transfer Eronet shares onto HT Mostar	Dnevni List, pg 2, 'Platform for negotiations with HT Zagreb being prepared', not signed – DL finds out from sources close to the FBiH Government that the Commission the FBiH Government formed at its last session (consisting of representatives of FBiH Ministry of Traffic and Communication, HT Mostar, FBiH Finance Ministry, FBiH Public Attorney's Office and FBiH Privatisation Agency) finds HT Zagreb's offer to transfer of 49% of share in Eronet onto HT Mostar acceptable so a platform for the negotiations is being prepared. Commenting on this, Robert Gavranovic, director of Herzegovina Osiguranje, one of Eronet majority owners, says the proposal must first be presented to other co-owners.

He concluded: "RS Government will not make any decision, which would be against the interests of BiH. This delay in implementation shows certain fear from the establishment of a unified oil market in BiH."
