OHR commends Srebrenica Commission's work	Herceg Bosna Radio, BHT, FTV, RTRS, Oslobođenje cover page, pgs 4-5 'RS Government admits liquidation of Bosniaks' by Sanita Rozajac, Dnevni Avaz pg 3, mentioned on cover 'RS claims responsibility for crime in Srebrenica', Nezavisne Novine cover pg splash '7800 persons murdered' and pgsd.2-3 'The list with 7800 names of murdered persons' by R. Cengic; Glas Srpske pg 2 'The courts' turn'; Vecernje Novosti pg 17 'Final list: 7,800 victims!' by Dusan Stojakovic, EuroBlic RSpgl 'Crime is no longer disputable' by Dusanka Stanisic, Dnevni List pg 2 '7800 missing persons on 34 lists', by D. Polovina-Mandic, FENA – The Senior Deputy High Representative, Bernard Fassier, on Monday said that he was pleased that the BiH Constitutional Court's Human Rights Commission's assessment of the Srebrenica Commission's Report was largely positive, although it is stated that much work needs to be done if this process is to be completed fully. On Monday, OHR received a copy of the letter that the BiH Constitutional Court's Commission for Human Rights sent to RS Prime Minister Dragan Mikerevic, giving him their assessment of the RS's Srebrenica report endorsed by the RS Government. Speaking at a press conference in Sarajevo, SDHR Fassier said that despite many obstacles the RS Governments Srebrenica Commission has bravely and determinedly accomplished a historic task that will, without doubt, contribute to reconciliation in the future and benefit BiH's future generations. "I commend the Commission's work," stressed Fassier, adding that a number of positive elements must be recognized. "The fact that the RS Government adopted the report in its entirety and endorsed its recommendations is a positive indicator – the report itself admits and provides details of the planned and deliberate liquidation of thousands of Bosniaks by RS forces," emphasized Fassier. In addition, Fassier underlined the RS commitment to bring to justice all those indicted of war crimes and to proceed with prosecutions, adding that OHR therefore expects the RS to provide all incriminating evidence to RS, BiH and ICTY Prosecutors for further investigation and trial. He also emphasized the expression by the RS Government of sympathy and condolence with the victim's families. Finally, Fassier praised the Commission's work to consolidate the 34 various lists of people reported missing from Srebrenica events. "The OHR understands that this list, which already numbers 7,800 missing, and that can be updated, will be made accessible to the public by the RS authorities. This list should bring to an end the manipulation of these numbers that has been evident in recent years," said Fassier. However, said Fassier, a large amount of work remains though, adding that exhumations, identifications, investigations and prosecutions have just started and for the victims and their families this process must be completed fully.

He said we could build normal relations only by condemning clearly crimes and the fact, he added, that "I am here tonight means that we have honoured all the victims of that absurd and senseless war." I do not distinguish people on the basis of their religion, Vlahovic said, adding that he belonged to a community and policies, which did not want to divide people on that basis. Investigation launched into PBES operations	Dnevni Avaz, front pg splash and pg 2 'Prosecutor Ratel leads investigation', by S. N. – Dnevni Avaz learns that a Prosecutor in the BiH Prosecution, Jonathan Ratel, has opened an investigation regarding the liquidation of the Privredna Banka of Serb Sarajevo (PBSS). Apparently, Ratel has been submitted documentation on situation in the PBSS and he is expected to determine the accountability of the PBSS Managing Director, Momcilo Mandic, as well as of some officials of the RS Government and Municipality of Bijeljina. In that context, Avaz notes that despite warnings coming from competent RS authorities and representatives of the IC that PBSS is 'suspicious' and 'in debts up to ears', the RS Government and Municipality of Bijeljina still deposited money with the PBSS. Avaz also notes that BiH will ask from Belgrade authorities to extradite Mandic, who has lived in Belgrade for past few years. One of speculations has it that Momcilo Mandic might turn himself in to the BiH Prosecution as a part of a deal that the Prosecution recently cut with Momcilo's son Aleksandar, who is being held in custody.

B. – Momcilo Mandic has stated that he would willingly surrender if HR Ashdown proved he had ever given a single KM to any of the Hague indictees. Regarding the claims that he was financing war crimes indictees, Mandic has stated: 'Ashdown is lying. He is telling the same story over and over again. If it were so, he should present some proof in public. Ashdown's second-class agent Dusan Mihajlovic arrested me last year upon his (HR's) request...his agent is no longer at the head of MoI so he cannot fulfill demands coming from England'. Mandic also claims HR Ashdown has been threatening with shutting down PBES for three years now, adding: 'They have been spending my money. Approximately 320 workers have been receiving salaries from my money. Damage I have suffered because of them amounts approximately 15 million KM.' He stated that his son was arrested and added 'this is Ashdown's democracy in which people are being dismissed, removed and killed'. Mandic: Serbia cannot extradite me	Oslobodjenje pg 8 'Serbia cannot extradite me', Dnevni Avaz, pg 2 'Mandic: Serbia cannot extradite me to BiH', not signed – Momcilo Mandic notes that funds belonging to the PBSS were never used to help the ICTY indictees, adding that Serbia cannot extradite him to BiH at the request of the High Representative for BiH, Paddy Ashdown, because the Serbian judiciary has already acquitted him once with regard to this case, reports Fena. "Ashdown had been arriving to Belgrade because of that and he 'arrested me' in the 'police operation Sword'. He has started observing Serbia, the same as he observes Bosnia, as his private property", Mandic told Srna, conveys Fena. Mandic also reminds that Ashdown's extradition request has been in place for last two years, noting that he is a citizen of Serbia, therefore the only thing HR Ashdown can do is to submit the Serbian judiciary all the documentation in order to organize the trials in Serbia.

Drago Vukovic, Presidency Chairman Borislav Paravac's advisor, said that the session had been postponed because of the Presidency members' previously scheduled activities. "It is also necessary to consult the ruling political parties in BiH before discussing the matter," Vukovic said, adding that session was to take place on Tuesday. Terzic forwarded a letter of his resignation to the Presidency on Thursday, as he cannot get support of the parliamentary majority for reforms. The reason behind his move was the decision of the BiH House of Representatives to adopt a differentiated VAT rate of zero and 17%, and not a single, 17% VAT rate, as proposed by the BiH Council of Ministers.

BHT, FTV, Oslobođenje pg 7, mentioned on cover 'Implement constitutional provision in accordance with 1991 census', Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'Constitution Court's decision just partly implemented', ONASA – Representatives of four non-governmental organizations request that legislative bodies, executive authorities and parliamentary political parties adopt programs for implementation of constitutional amendments guaranteeing equality of peoples in BiH and undertake measures in order that proportional national representation in accordance with the census from 1991 be ensured in all institutions. VL commentary on initiative to establish TV channel in Croatian language	Vecernji List pg 5 'Divisions with channel – assimilation without channel' by D. Juka carries a commentary on the initiative to establish a TV channel in Croatian language. Commenting on this situation the author says it is absurd that leading people of state institutions fight for the establishment of a TV channel in Croatian language although they are responsible for the fact that such channel does not exist 'especially when it is known that there was a tacit agreement reached between the Croat side and the OHR at the end of the 90-ies according to which a special channel in Croatian language would not be demanded'.

ITA Steering
Board member
Sefika
Hafizovic on VAT rate

Dnevni Avaz, pg 4 'VAT law as adopted by House of Representatives cannot be successfully implemented', by L. Sinanovic – The Indirect Tax Authority's Steering Board (ITA SB) has sent the BiH Parliament a letter last week, which says that the ITA SB cannot take responsibility for successful implementation of the Law on VAT in form which was adopted by the BiH Parliament's House of representatives on November 4, 2004. Member of the ITA SB and Economic Advisor to the FBiH Prime Minister, Sefika Hafizovic, says the Law on VAT, in form which was adopted by the MPs in the HoR, cannot be successfully implemented because in case the zero rate is in place, in reality it would mean that extra taxpayers would have to be registered, as much as double in fact, which in turn would make the successful implementation of the VAT law impossible because the current administration cannot process two VAT rate in such short period of time. ITA SB's letter also notes that the system with two VAT rates has two key shortcomings, namely it increases corruption and brings difficulties to the implementation of the law.

NN op-ed on ITA	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'Admitting the failure' by Predrag Klincov – The author is writing about the VAT, noting that Adnan Terzic and Renzo Daviddi have practically admitted – through their agents for adoption of a single VAT – that the BiH ITA would not be capable of performing one of main tasks. By saying that several-rate VAT system would create space for tax evasion, they have actually questioned all the fuss about establishment of ITA and its aim to root out the crime.

However, the Government has continually ignored them, resulting in the strike of employees of 12 ministries and services, as well as FBiH Tax Administration. “We demand from the Government to annul the decision that illegally reduced the minimum wage by 10%,” Guso said, adding that the employees also demands that the basic/minimum salary is harmonized at 128 KM, pursuant to an agreement reached with the Government in February. “Our demands are for harmonization, not for an increase of salaries,” Guso said.
