SCG legal team: ICJ is not competent in case of BiH lawsuit against SCG	BH Radio 1, RTRS – In a process of a BiH lawsuit against SCG before International Court of Justice [ICJ], SCG legal agents continued their argumentation challenging Court's competency. BiH charged SCG for aggression and genocide. SCG legal agent Vladimir Djerić said that SCG (i.e. FR Yugoslavia) was not member of UN in the period of 1994-2000, basing its argument on the Court's refusal to accept SCG lawsuit against NATO countries, saying that this Court should not have jurisdiction in this case as well. Head of SCG team Tibor Varadi said his party is not tied by Item 9, Convention on Genocide and that ICJ sentence on its jurisdiction for the lawsuit from 1996 cannot be the final one.

SDHR met RS NA Speaker: RS NA Board for defence and security to discuss defence and police reforms	RTRS, BH Radio 1 – Senior Deputy High Representative Peter Bas-Backer today in Banja Luka stated that police reform in BiH is in technical phase, stressing that any political interference at this moment would represent a reason for concern. SDHR told the press after the meeting with Igor Radojicic, RS NA Speaker, that: “We are informed of media reports related police reform and we have contacts with RS Government in order to determine exact facts with an aim to resume talks on this issue.” SDHR also announced that officials in charge of police reform issues will visit Banja Luka in order to review the current situation and determine what can be done further. Radojicic has announced that the RS NA Board for defence and security will hold discussions within shortest time frame possible in regard to the flow of police and defence reforms. Following these discussions, the RS NA is to take a stance and make conclusions.

Main hearing before ICJ continues; SCG team claims number of victims are exaggerated	RTRS – Main hearing in BiH lawsuit against SCG continued before International Court of Justice. SCG team started its defence and SCG legal representative Radoslav Stojanovic stressed that BiH lawsuit is groundless. SCG team claims that information on number of victims submitted by BiH team is exaggerated and based on unreliable sources. SCG co-representative Sasa Obradovic stressed that 93 000 people were killed in BiH during the war and added that his information is based on results of Director of information documentation centre from Sarajevo Mirsad Tokaca. SCG team stressed that BiH team failed to prove that genocide in BiH has been committed and that SCG authorities were responsible for it. Stojanovic stressed several times that SCG is in favour of diplomatic solutions of the case. SDS Vice President Dusan Stojicic stated that this case can only be solved through diplomatic efforts. RS Prime minister Milorad Dodik stressed that ICJ cannot rule on existence of RS and added that future of RS depends on people living in it. SCG team will continue its defence on Thursday. Softic expressed his belief that ICJ will not declare on matter of authority during the main hearing, but its stance would be presented in the sentence.
Chair of the RS CoP Kadric: politicians in RS are more concerned with the lawsuit then those in SCG	Dnevni Avaz pg 'It is tragicomic that RS is more concerned because of the lawsuit then the SCG is' by E.S.— Chair of the RS Council of Peoples Remzija Kadric stated that it is tragicomic how RS politicians are struggling to prove the illegality of the BiH's lawsuit against SCG and it seems that they are more concerned then politicians in SCG. One of RS politicians how is leading the struggle [as daily stated] is Co-Chair of RS CoP Miroslav Mikes for whom Kadric said that as experienced attorney he should know that BiH has full legality in this matter, stressing that his behavior is not surprising for people who know how he acted as representative of 'others' during the establishment of amendments on constitutionality of peoples.
Oslobodjenje op-ed: Only path of reconciliation is truth	Oslobodjenje pg 9 'Path of reconciliation' op-ed by Edin Krehic — Commenting opening day of defence in BiH lawsuit against SCG before International Court of Justice [ICJ], editorial reads that the only path of reconciliation is path of truth. Author notes that if Belgrade wants to play with numbers of victims, and claim that there was no systematic killing, than they should explain removing of mass graves, which was meant to hide the truth.

ICTY Appeals Chamber reduces sentence to Nikolic to 20 years	BHT1 – ICTY Appeals Chamber Wednesday reduced the sentence to Momir Nikolic, RS army officer convicted of crimes committed in Srebrenica in 1995, from 27 to 20 years. On 7 May 2003, Nikolic, Assistant Commander for Security and Intelligence of the RS Army Bratunac Brigade, pleaded guilty to persecuting Bosniak civilians in Srebrenica in 1995. Specifically, Nikolic admitted that he was involved in coordinating and organizing the operation to kill over 7,000 Bosniak men and boys, and deport many thousands of women and children. Nikolic is one of six individuals convicted for crimes in Srebrenica in 1995. In addition to Momir Nikolic, two other Bosnian Serb army members pleaded guilty. They are among 21 individuals the Tribunal indicted for these crimes. RHB, Hayat, FTV, RTRS, Dnevni List pg 4 ‘Sentence to Nikolic reduced by 7 years’ not signed, Slobodna Dalmacija pg 14 ‘The Hague: Sentence to Nikolic reduced on 20 years in prison’ by H, Nezavisne Novine pg 6 ‘Nikolic’s sentence reduced for seven years’ by Agencies , Dnevni Avaz pg 12 ‘Sentence to Momir Nikolic reduced to 20 years’ by Onasa, Oslobodjenje pg 2 ‘Sentence to Nikolic reduced from 27 to 20 years in prison’ by Asim Beslija– carried similar reports.

SDS accuses RS PM Dodik for political pressure on SDS personnel: RS would face consequences of such behaviour	BHT1 – After dismissals of several officials of RS Government, new RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik had to face the accusations from SDS claiming Dodik is applying political pressure on SDS officials to resign. SDS Vice-President Dusan Stojicic stated at a press conference held on Wednesday that such pressure is illegal. “We call on all those people to resist this political violence of the new Government, to believe in the RS institutions and to protect their rights through these institutions”, said Stojicic. Dodik rejected all accusations of SDS, claiming that officials who resigned did so without any pressure. SDS even asked for assistance from OHR for the protection of its members. SDHR Peter Bas-Becker announced that OHR is only going to make sure that the resignations and dismissals are conducted in accordance with laws. RTRS – Stojicic stated that RS would have to face consequences of such irresponsible work of RS Government. SDS also feels that dismissals of Public Security Centres’ chiefs are also politically based. SDS member Borislav Bojic already asked for a meeting of RS National Assembly’s board for security issues. Reporter comments that SDS seems to forget that there were dismissals in RS MoI before arrival of new Government. “SDS has never brought into question political independence of state administration”, stressed Stojicic. RS Premier Dodik claims that employees are resigning without pressure. “We clearly stressed that we will make changes rather than sit in chairs”, says Dodik. EuroBlic pg RS 9 'Celebration without entities' by L. Stefanovic – although a part of Brcko District's jurisdictions have been transferred onto BiH joint institutions without consent of the District representatives in past several months, Mayor Djapo believes most of disputable issues would be resolved by the end of the year and also that in line with provisions of the Final Award, Brcko would have a clearer position in the new BiH Constitution.

Hungarian Foreign Minister Somogyi: We support BiH on its way towards EU	Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'We should reward BiH for every step it makes' by Lana Sinanovic – In an interview for daily, Hungary Foreign Minister Ferenc Somogyi said that although many EU countries do not support enlargement policy, Hungary is among those countries that does, adding that his country is ready to provide unconditional help to BiH in that sense. Somogyi said that Hungarian interest is in the first place financial: "First of all, we see enlargement process as an long term investment. It is a guarantee for a stabile Union, not a charity for poor countries." He also approved BiH talks on constitutional changes, adding that every step BiH makes towards Euro-Atlantic integrations should be somehow rewarded. Cooperation with ICTY and control over BiH citizenships will logically lead to liberalization of visa regime, said Somogyi.

Constitutional changes

After Venice Commission drafted response regarding election of BiH Presidency, parties indecisive, stances still differ	BHT1 – Preliminary stance of the Venice Commission is that the best solution for election of BiH President and Vice Presidents would be the indirect election at BiH House of Peoples. Chair of BiH Presidency Sulejman Tihic confirmed this information. The Commission will decide on its final stance at the session scheduled for March 16 and 17. For most BiH political parties, this solution is acceptable. HDZ Spokesman Miso Relota stated that the solution proposed by the Venice Commission is very close to the solution proposed by HDZ. SDP's Jozo Krizanovic stated that SDP prefers the same solution as Venice Commission. Krizanovic stressed that SDP can accept this solution. SNSD leader Milorad Dodik believes that the proposal of Venice Commission will result in even more confusion, instead of providing a solution. SDS member Borislav Bojic said that the Venice Commission is an authority whose opinion should be respected. However, Bojic refused to give any specific comments to the stances of Venice Commission before SDS Main Board discusses this issue. SBiH stated previously that the whole concept of constitutional changes as it is at the moment is unacceptable. Martin Raguz from the Caucus of HDZ-Demo-Christians stated that this Caucus is not going to accept any solutions that freeze the current division of BiH in two entities. Hayat – "We still believe that crucial changes which should take place in BiH, such as transformation of BiH Council of Ministers into Government, expansion of BiH's authority, are far more important than the way in which BiH President is to be elected", said SDP representative Damir Masic. Nezavisne Novine pg 2 'Tihic expects continuation of negotiations on BiH Constitution' by M. Cubro – Tihic, Dodik, Relota on const.changes; Glas Srpske pg 5 'They asked for an opinion, got the solution' by Z. RS PM Dodik: stance of Venice Commission in favour of indirect election of BiH Presidency members in BH HoR does not help but brings additional confusion	RTRS – RS Premier Milorad Dodik stated after Wednesday's meeting with SDHR Peter Bas-Backer that stance of Venice Commission by which it is in favour of indirect election of BiH Presidency members in BiH House of Representatives does not help resolve but instead brings additional confusion. He added that Venice Commission was supposed to choose from one of the 3 offered solutions rather than to modify them. Bas-Backer reminded that time is running out, emphasising the importance of reforms in BiH.
RS PM Dodik met Great Britain Ambassador Rycroft: solutions on const. changes that were agreed upon should be sent to Parliament	Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'Agreement on BiH Constitution in the Parliament' by P. K., Glas Srpske pg 3 'Tribunal is priority' by Z. Markovic – RS PM Milorad Dodik met Great Britain Ambassador Matthew Rycroft on Wednesday and stated, with regard to the constitutional changes, he preferred the solutions that have already been agreed upon and he thinks it is time for these solutions to be sent to the parliamentary procedures.
SNSD Vice President Simic: We will consider suggestions of Venice Commission	Dnevni Avaz pg 8 'HDZ thinks that situation is much more clear now' by A. Malagic – Commenting on stance of Venice Commission regarding talks on constitutional changes, SNSD Vice President Krstan Simic said that his party respects authority of Venice Commission but that there is no need for changing already agreed issues, adding that these recommendations will surely be considered. Oslobodjenje pg 6, mentioned on cover 'Stance of Commission is that state leadership should be elected by deputies' by A. Omeragic – SDS's Momcilo Novakovic expressing stances similar to those by Bojic (see above). Inset 'Lagumdzija hopes for compromise' – SDP leader Zlatko Lagumdzija expressed hope that parties will find compromise and pick one of two offered models.

SDA's Tihic: Venice Commission thinks indirect election of BiH Presidency members, but only in HoR, is the best solution	Nezavisne Novine pg 2 'Tihic expects continuation of negotiations on BiH Constitution' by M. Cubro – SDA President Sulejman Tihic has stated the Venice Commission believes the best solution is indirect election of BiH Presidency members 'but only in the House of Representatives'.
HDZ President Covic: Venice Commission recommendation suits demands of Croat side/Talks to continue in a week time at latest	Vecernji List pg 21 'Croats would be able to elect member of BiH Presidency' by Z. Kresic – HDZ President Dragan Covic expressed readiness to continue negotiations on constitutional changes, stressing the Venice Commission recommendation suits demands of the Croat side. Covic expects that the negotiations would continue in a week time at the latest, adding: 'It is very important the division of BiH in two parts or mentioning of both entities, the RS and FBiH, are not stressed in any document.'
HDZ spokesperson Relota: HDZ-CD Caucus would not be sanctioned due to their opposition to agreed const. changes	Slobodna Dalmacija pg 16, announced on cover 'This is democratic country...' by M. Karacic – Commenting on the statement of the HDZ-CD Caucus in the BiH HoR who said that they would not support agreed constitutional changes, HDZ spokesperson Miso Relota stated that there would be no sanctions towards them and that BiH is a democratic country and people can say whatever they want. SD learns from unofficial sources that people from HDZ view the HDZ-CD Caucus stand on the aforementioned issue at the beginning of the struggle for positions at the election lists.
HDZ's Relota: Stances of Zoric and Raguz are not stances of HDZ	Glas Srpske pg 5 'Zoric in his own way' by Z. M. – HDZ Spokesperson Miso Relota has stated that the stances Vinko Zoric and Martin Raguz presented before BiH HoR regarding the constitutional changes two days ago were not stances of HDZ. He added Raguz is not a member of HDZ and Zoric had not attended sessions of the party's Presidency for quite a while now.

DA op-ed: HDZ leader Covic lost control over deputies in BiH HoR and that is big problem both for HDZ and BiH	Dnevni Avaz op-ed pg 3 'Is Dragan Covic general without army?' by Husein Orahovac – Commenting that all deputies in BiH House of Representatives elected from the HDZ lists claim they would not support agreement on constitutional changes in the Parliament, editorial reads that HDZ leader Dragan Covic is a general without an army. Covic lost control over his people that should follow his command, says author, adding that it is a big problem both for HDZ and BiH. HDZ now represents unreliable partner, concludes editorial, adding that BiH would surely suffer because of that since constitutional changes cannot be adopted without HDZ.
