BiH Minister of Foreign Affairs, Mladen Ivanic says: full cooperation with the ICTY has to be achieved

TV Pink Dragica Tojagic – BiH Minister of Foreign Affairs, Mladen Ivanic said that BiH had no alternative when it comes to NATO since it presented precondition for entrance to the EU, during a meeting called “NATO and region”. Ivanic added that BiH had met all technical terms needed for the admission to the Partnership for Peace, but still a political term had to be met – namely full cooperation with the ICTY. Ivanic added that the Army had to be professional, consisted of 6.000-8.000 soldiers, which would be much cheaper than numerous recruits. “Entities’ Ministries of Defence are performing activities with regard to recruiting. If there is no recruitment there is a question what these ministries are going to do, it seems as if a small ministry which should be in charge of a small, professional Army, consisted out of 6.000 to 8.000 soldiers”, Ivanic said. Military analyst Gostimir Popovic believes that BiH does not have to enter NATO in order to become EU member. He says that the price for entering NATO is too high and that BiH will have to take part in numerous operations all around the World, such as Iraq , Afghanistan , etc.

BHT1 Boris Gagic – BHT reporter said that Brussels expects from BiH to carry out the police reform, complete cooperation with the ICTY and abolishment of entities’ Ministries of Defence in order to join the EU. “BiH Ministry of Defence has to pass from entity level to the level of joint institutions. As I know, that is the only difference and I think that needs to be the moment when we establish the professional army”, said Mladen Ivanic, and added that in that moment a need for ministry of defence would cease.

NTV Hayat – During the meeting in Brussels , Peace Implementation Council Steering Board pointed out that progress in domain of cooperation with the ICTY had to continue, since the full cooperation still had not been achieved. BiH Minister of Foreign Affairs Mladen Ivanic says that International Community has to have more understanding for BiH in meeting the necessary terms regarding NATO partnership. RS National Assembly opposes abolishment of entities’ Ministries of Defence, since it does not present a term necessary in order to enter Partnership for Peace. Military analyst Gostimir Popovic said that, in order to enter NATO, it was necessary to carry out referendum.

Oslobodjenje pg 4 ‘NATO is the final destination of BiH on its path to EU’ by O. Vukovic, Dnevni Avaz pg 5 ‘First professionalisation of the army, then abolishment of entities’ ministries’ not signed, Glas Srpske pg 2 ‘Hague is the measure for everything’ by M. Luxembourg's support should help BiH in order to get recommendation of the European Commission for launching of negotiation on Stabilization and Association Agreement (SAA) with EU. "One part of technical things was left to be done. True, the issue of consensus on crucial elements of police reform have also been left, and that is one political moment, because of which I can't guarantee that we'll fulfil all conditions in May", said Adnan Terzic. Dnevni List pg 8 'Luxemburg will support BiH on its path to EU' by Nina – also reports on the meeting.

Giesmann: BiH needs a new constitutional solution	Oslobodjenje pg 8 'BiH needs a new constitutional solution' by Onasa, Nezavisne Novine pg 9 'A new constitutional solution in BiH is needed' by VOA – In a statement for Radio Free Europe, the Head of Hamburg Institute for Peace and Safety Politics, Hans Joachim Giesmann has stated nationally and territorially divided BiH is not suitable for European integrations and he added BiH needs a new constitutional organisation. Member of BiH Presidency Sulejman Tihic believes that Schook is wrong when saying that BiH should not apply for entrance to PfP this month, since it has not met all necessary terms. “Decision on application has been brought by BiH Presidency and the Presidency is the only institution which should withdraw the decision, I object such decision, since it would mean that those, who oppose BiH’s entrance to European integrations, since I think that we have to do our best in order to meet political terms and that we should not withdraw the application”, Tihic said. Tihic says that the cooperation with the ICTY presented the main obstacle. “The main reason lies in the RS, and RS should bring decisions regarding the issue, which is in BiH and RS citizens’ interests”, said Tihic.

M. – SDA Chairman Sulejman Tihic thinks the Election Commission would not bring the decision on the annulment of the election of delegates to Sarajevo Town Council after all because this would be an illegal act made against will of voters. ‘If there were any procedural errors, the Election Commission can order for these to be corrected, i.e. voting for some delegates to be repeated. However, it cannot annul a complete election process. This would be unconstitutional and illegal...’, Tihic has stated.
