to call on Terzic
to resign

RHB, BHT1, RTRS, Oslobodjenje pg 2 'Delegates did not want to call on Terzic to resign' by V. Zivak, Dnevni List pg 3 'Demand for Terzic's resignation rejected' by M. Zorlak, Vecernji List pg 3 'Rather negotiations than elections' by eme, Slobodna Dalmacija pg 18 'Hopeless situation' by B. Kristo, Nezavisne Novine pgs 2-3 'Demand for removal of Terzic was rejected' by M. Cubro –The BiH House of Representatives on Wednesday did not accept the conclusion proposed by SDP representative Zlatko Lagumdžija calling on the Chair of CoM Adnan Terzic to resign. After a several hours long debate regarding the report by Terzic on the situation in the CoM [following his acceptance of the Mladen Ivanic's resignation due to of CoM to appoint SIPA Director], the House adopted the conclusion that requests from Terzic to make consultations with the political parties in the HoR within seven days in order to overcome current situation in the CoM. Another adopted conclusion [demanded by the opposition] states that the HoR is concerned about the general situation in the country and the crisis in the CoM caused by accepted and announced resignations of ministers.

PINK, Slobodna Dalmacija pg 18 'Ivanic hinders way to Europe' by D. Pasic – "I have to admit that there is possibility for a launch of voting non confidence to the CoM and I am ready for that discussion", stated Terzic. Lagumdžija also proposed a change the election law to allow early elections.

FTV by Blazica Kristo – Reporter commented that everything is possible to happen in the CoM, including a possibility for Ivanic to return to his position as if nothing has happened. It is even possible, says FTV, that all this has been done to drive PDP away from the government, as they are no longer political leaders in RS. Currently, no one knows weather Ivanic is still a Minister or not.

Terzic's report on CoM causes frenzied debate in HoR: SPRS, PDP, SDS say Terzic caused crisis deliberately; HDZ accuses Ivanic of crisis

BHT 1 by Gvozden Sarac – During the discussion in the BiH HoR, Deputy Chair Nikola Spiric [SNSD] stated that SDS has found reliable ally in Terzic since “Terzic... wants SDS to be a majority in BiH HoR”. Mladen Novakovic from SDS doubts in appointing new BiH Foreign Minister from SDS. Zlatko Lagumdzija from SDP stated that BiH institutions are generally in crises and that “coalition of three nationalistic parties along with HR have reached the bottom after the 2,5 years”.

Hayat by Semsudin Skejic, Denis Zaimovic – SPRS representative Tihomir Gligoric accused Terzic of being the one who created crisis in the CoM. PDP representative Jelina Djurkovic said that Terzic's decision was illegal. HDZ's Filip Andric and Lagumdzija were the only ones to support Terzic's decision, but reporters stress support turned into proposal for Terzic's resignation. BiH Security Minister, Barisa Colak, says that the CoM is able to continue the work since there are at least two Ministers from all three constitutive nations. He also accused Ivanic and some others ministers of causing the crisis. RTRS by Sladjana Jasarevic – HDZ feels that Ivanic should have withdrawn his resignation in writing and respect the agreement on SIPA and OSA positions reached 2 years ago. Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Serb delegates strongly attacked state Prime Minister' by H. Orahovac – Serb delegates in the BiH HoR told Terzic was acting opposite of the provisions under the Law on CoM.

Slobodna Dalmacija pg 19 'Early elections?' by A. Macanovic – PDP Vice President Goran Milojevic and Novakovic believe Terzic caused the crises deliberately, while SPRS President Petar Djokic and Dzevad Osmancevic from SBiH say in this way BiH is closer to early elections. SDP Vice President Slobodan Popovic stated that relations between Terzic and Ivanic were also hypocritical before. Dnevni List pg 3 'Terzic is releasing political balloons' not signed SDP member Jozo Krizanovic also believes that this is another of staged political crisis.

FTV, RTRS, Nezavisne Novine pgs 2-3 'Demand for removal of Terzic was rejected' by M. Cubro, EuroBlic pg RS1 'Decision as in accordance with conscience, after consultations' by Dusanka Stanisic and pg RS2 'Ready for new elections' by Rajna Radosavljevic and Nedeljka Breberina, announced on cover 'Ready for elections' also carries Spiric and Lagumdzija.

Bu., EuroBlic pg RS1 'Decision as in accordance with conscience, after consultations' by Dusanka Stanisic and pg RS2 'Ready for new elections' by Rajna Radosavljevic and Nedeljka Breberina, announced on cover 'Ready for elections' – Commenting latest events in BiH CoM, the HR Paddy Ashdown said on Wednesday there are two possible conclusions: the first being that the BiH government reached the end of the process of reform and cannot deliver more, or that "this is all about of summer madness". Addressing a press conference on the occasion of Adnan Terzic's to sign the resignation of Foreign Minister Mladen Ivanic, Ashdown said that he could not yet tell which of these options is true, but inclined to believe it is the second option. HR added Terzic still has time to ensure CoM continues its work regarding the reforms. FTV by Nikolina Veljovic – HR also informed press he talked to Terzic an hour before announced decision advising him not to do so. "I want to see this political turbulence finished as soon as possible. I hope that Chairman Terzic will do what he has done so far; take over the leadership and assemble all relevant sides in order to resolve this issue fast. I expect them to return to the job and important reforms in order to put the country on the path to the EU," said HR.

Numanovic – In an interview with DA, Paddy Ashdown says that he strongly disagrees with the decision of Adnan Terzic to accept resignation filed by Mladen Ivanic as this would present a disturbance in efforts to ensure BiH is on the European path. However, he also says that Terzic's work is not to be judged only by this and he understands Prime Minister's frustrations in trying to implement reforms. He underlines that the government under Terzic was the one to carry out the largest number of reforms.

BiH Election Comm's Korac: early elections not possible; HR: Early elections would not be supported by IC	PINK, BHT 1, Hayat – A member of BiH Election Commission, Lidija Korac claims that organization of early elections in BiH is not a way out of the current situation. She says the early elections would cost about 10 million KM believing this is enough of the reason for BiH citizens to boycott possible extraordinary elections. "In this moment there is no legal possibility of changing or amending the election law and I believe that it is not acceptable", said Korac. RTRS, Dnevni Avaz inset pg 3 'Early elections would bring instability' – Commenting to the initiatives for early elections, Paddy Ashdown stressed at the press conference this is an internal BIH issue but added that changes to election law that would create long term instability, which would not be supported by the International Community. He added that those changes would also require constitutional changes not believing there is enough political will at this moment.

Terzic emphasized that the candidates to replace Ministers who had resigned should be appoint as soon as possible in order for the reform processes in the country not to be stopped. Terzic denied claims he had officially announced in March this year that Ivanic and his PDP colleagues had withdrawn their resignations. He said that he had just presented a conclusion from a BiH political leaders' meeting in Neum suggesting that PDP Ministers including Ivanic and Dokic should continue their work in CoM. Terzic concludes that he had not thought about to resign because he was not responsible for any reform failures in BiH.
