SNSD' Dodik: Presidency
with three members
rotating
every 16
months

RTRS – RTRS just received report from press conference Dragan Cavic, Milorad Dodik and Mladen Ivanic, presidents of SDS, SNSD and PDP respectively held in Banja Luka. They stated that bilateral meeting of representatives of SDS, SNSD and PDP with leaders of SDA and SDP resulted in a sort of a compromise, that may lead to positive solution regarding constitutional changes. RTRS carries Dodik as saying: "All three of us stood behind stance that in the future, BiH can hardly have one president. We insisted BiH should have Presidency that would be elected in the following manner: two members from FBiH and one from RS and 16-months rotation would be introduced. I must say I am convinced in seeing such an agreement reached. We have also discussed the issue of some BiH authorities. This entire package should be viewed as a compromise on reaching constitutional changes. There will be almost no change to BiH House of Representatives, which will maintain entity vote, stipulating that BiH HoR's decision must be supported by one third of delegates from entity. This provision, currently existing in Constitution, has not been issue of dispute. Another round of bilateral talks should be held, mainly with the parties from F BiH, namely HDZ and Party for BiH, in order to obtain their assent on these issues, although they have already supported these solutions. As far as we from RS are concerned, we are of the view we have qualitatively contributed to the issue of resolving the problem."

VN Interview
with HR: I will reach
for powers
for the Hague

Vecernje Novosti pg 2 'I reach for powers for The Hague' by Dusan Stojakovic – In a brief interview to daily, Christian Schwarz Schilling, HR to BiH, says that a reference to Bonn powers does not mean that local politicians have gone slacken, noting: "There are issues where I would reach for powers to their full extent – if BiH institutions fail to do the work properly. Mainly if somebody jeopardises the peace in the state and BiH institutions fail to cooperate with the ICTY." He notes that only looking back in past can raise misunderstandings in BiH, noting that comparison between Kosovo and RS is a pure nonsense, adding: "History, situation in Dayton and after Dayton are different, so there is no grounds for such perception." He adds that both entities in BiH must have close communication and contacts on a daily basis and talk of mutual goals. According to inset "Mujahedeens", he stresses: "I personally see no major danger in BiH from terrorism that from any other parts of the world. If somebody who had navigated the plane to Pentagon had been in BiH before it means nothing. Well, a large number of world terrorists spent some time in Berlin or Hamburg but they cannot be brought in connection with Germany."

Glas Srpske criticises HR to BiH over his statement regarding mujahedeens in BiH

Glas Srpske pg 5 'A pact it is, but not the devil' by D.Majstorovic – GS refers to report by Belgrade based daily "Politika" according to which HR to BiH, Christian Schwarz-Schilling stated for German daily "Suddeutsche Zeitung" that mujahedeens regularly fought in Bosniak Army of BiH and they had never practised terrorist methods. Daily sarcastically wonder how come HR has not heard of those cases. It also says HR to BiH, like Richard Holbrooke, former Special US Envoy for Balkans, claims arrival of mujahedeens to BiH was the only way for BiH to survive. GS notes the only difference between the two is that Holbrooke, unlike HR to BiH, called this operation "pact with the devil".
