

OHR BiH TV News Summary, 1 June 2000

News Headlines

- Serb refugees living in Kotorsko, just outside Doboj, force 50 Bosniaks out of their houses
- BiH Presidency appoints Head of BiH State Border Service
- International Community discontent with nomination of Spasoje Tusevljak as Chairman of the BiH Council of Ministers – Deputy High Representative Ralph Johnson during meeting with Jelavic
- BiH Federation Government announces price increase of natural gas and petroleum products
- OHR annuls RS National Assembly's conclusion on returning property to refugees until Croatian Government reciprocates in regard to Serb refugees
- BiH is a colony run by international bureaucrats and protected by SFOR – Washington-based Cato Institute Vice-chairman Ted Carpenter
- Commemoration held in memory of 750 Bosniaks killed in Zvornik in 1992
- BiH parliamentary delegation meets with Croatian Parliamentary Speaker Zlatko Tomac in Zagreb
- Ignac Kostroman and Dario Kordic are responsible for massacre in Ahmici, Croatian intelligence agency (HIS) report reveals
- Djukanovic's National Security Advisor Goran Zugic killed in Podgorica
- World news
- Schwartz-Schilling visits returnees in Bugojno and Zenica municipalities
- Turkish Government donates military equipment to BiH Federation
- SDA demands that PEC withdraws P2 Form because it

legalizes ethnic cleansing and represents obstacle to refugee returns

- SDP BiH will insist upon adoption of its draft BiH Permanent Election Law – Lagumdžija addresses letter to Barry
- Business cooperation between BiH and Croatia decreasing
- Trebinje police arrest group of Serbs suspected of illegal transport of Kurds to Montenegro
- Soros Media Center Director Boro Kontić receives European Broadcasting Award
- TV BiH editor Raska Bracković-Denjalović appointed Director of BiH Federation Government Information Office
- Tuzla police questions Dnevni Avaz journalist and lawyer Balijagić for allegations against Tuzla judge
- Wives of three BiH Presidency members agree to sponsor 'BiH Folk Doll' Project
- Sports
- Weather

News Summary

Tuzla police questions Dnevni Avaz journalist and lawyer Balijagić for allegations against Tuzla judge

Dnevni Avaz Journalist Elvir Huremović and Tuzla lawyer Faruk Balijagić were detained and questioned by Tuzla police in connection with an investigation into allegations made against Tuzla Court Justice Dijana Milić. The Tuzla Cantonal Prosecutor called Huremović as a witness in the case against Balijagić, who insulted Milić in a news article, entitled 'Judge Milić Committed Genocide against (Mirnes) Ajanović.' Huremović emphasized the absurdities of this case. It could be a precedent when a journalist, any journalist, can be taken in for questioning if someone is offended by someone else's statement in an article that journalist writes. (01:55)