

OHR BiH TV News Summary, 1 October 2000

News Headlines:

- Sydney Olympics ended
- International Commission for Missing Persons organises four-day meeting of families of missing persons from Croatia and BiH in Sarajevo; invited Yugoslav commission for MP fails to show up
- Central Bosnia Canton Associations Originating from Homeland War blocks Kaonik-Travnik road for two hours protesting inferior position of Croats in BiH Federation, especially with regard to illegal arrests of Croats by mono-national Bosniak BiH Federation Interior Ministry units
- Izetbegovic congratulates Chinese president Jiang Ze Min on Chinese National Holiday
- "Due to false promises of politicians who say one thing and do another, BiH economy is in collapse" – BiH Independent Trade Unions open letter to Petritsch expressing support for his sharp criticism of incapable domestic politicians
- 'Circle 99' holds panel discussion on corruption in educational institutions and other current political issues in BiH
- If Milosevic rejects international arbitration, DOS will call citizens to general strike
- World news
- Kreka-Djurdjevik coal mine economic recovery project runs into difficulties due to lack of investment funding
- Food industry promising basis for development of Brcko District economy
- Returnees to Sanski Most face accommodation problems
- Story on Mirsad Mesinovic's claims that house used by

Marinko Vujinic in village of Citari is, in fact, his home

- Konjic businessmen donate construction material to Podrinje returnees
- Story on village of Lokve which played important role during BiH war and seems to have been forgotten
- Mile Stojic publishes new book of poetry
- EC funds research for more fuel efficient car engine
- GDS calls for special session of BiH Federation Parliament
- Certain IC officials are once again becoming biased participants in election campaign – SDA warns citizens
- Ajanovic supports Croatian President Mesic's decision to retire seven Croat army generals – BOSS
- Republicans BiH candidates present party platform in Ilidza
- Sport