Sarajevo – At the IC regular press conference, UN Spokesman Alexander Ivanko expressed his concern over the tense situation in Martin-Brod, near Drvar. Ivanko proposed that the problem of authorities in that town should be resolved at the federation level. On Tuesday, an incident occurred in Martin-Brod when the Croatian authorities attempted to prevent 28 Serb civilians from returning their homes, said the report. According to unconfirmed information, three SFOR soldiers attacked Borivoje Malbasic, an official from the Herzegovina canton. Ivanko criticized local media which "have a negative impact on tensions in that town", as he put it.

OHR Spokesman, Simon Haselock was quoted to the effect that Momcilo Krajisnik and Gojko Klickovic had refused to accept the terms for restructuring of the RS TV as proposed by the OHR. Thus, the ban on broadcasting against TV Pale would remain in effect until the said terms had been met.

"We do not perceive this as punishment, because our objective is to assist in creating a pluralistic and democratic information system in the RS. The RS citizens deserve better programme", specified Haselock.
