SDA dissatisfied with counting of ballots from out-of-country voters – Tihic

As far as the SDA is concerned, the regularity of the municipal elections has been brought into question by the party's dissatisfaction with the process of counting ballots from abroad. According to the SDA, the OSCE Mission did not ensure party observers a true opportunity to monitor the process, so the results cannot be recognized. SDA Vice-president Sulejman Tihic stated at an impromptu press conference that they addressed a sharp protest to the OSCE and PEC and withdrew their observers accredited to work in the (Center for Ballot Counting). Tihic stated that the SDA would not recognize results obtained through this method of counting and that they requested a recount.
