The latest active participation of the USA in the negotiations concerning ports of Ploce and Neum was confirmed today in practice. The US Special Envoy Richard Sclar takes part in the new mission of fact-finding in relation to the renting a free zone in Ploce for BH, and Croatia's access to Neum. "The briefly and temporarily forgotten issue burdening the relations between BH and Croatia" again gained actuality due to yesterday's meeting between the US President's Special Envoy Sclar with the Foreign Minister of Croatia, Mate Granic. As a part of the latest fact-finding mission, Sclar held separate sessions with BH and Croatia's delegations. BH delegation members, Muratovic and Hajric expect progress in negotiations now that the US took part (Muratovic said that the US participation was "of extreme importance").

Regional road from Vitez to Zenica deblocked today around 14:00. Although their demands were not met, refugee Bosniaks from the village of Gacice await fulfilment of their demands, as set at a meeting in Vitez, in the next ten days. Unless results be reached, the refugees will block the traffic again. "The OHR suggested a new plan of return to Vitez municipality, but we did not reach an agreement, since the Croat side was not able to reach decisions", TV BiH quoted an official who presided the two and a half-hour meeting in Vitez. Adnan Terzic, Governor of the Central Bosnia Canton said that the

"OHR could not allow itself the luxury of jeopardizing the functioning of cantonal institutions for giving concessions to local officials in any of the canton's municipalities."
