OHR BiH TV News Summary, 11 January 2000

News Headlines

- Association of Podrinje and Srebrenica Women gathers in Tuzla to denote tragic suffering of 10,000 people from Srebrenica
- Mandzic welcomes establishment of multiethnic police in Srebrenica
- Talic and Brdjanin plead not guilty to charges of genocide in extended indictment
- Dario Kordic and Mario Cerkez trial continues at The Hague
- Intimidation and personal revenge motive for Monday's explosion in Travnik as discovered by police investigation
- BiH Helsinki Board presents report on situation in media
- European Council Political Committee decides to include issue of BiH integration with European Council in April session agenda – Bicakcic
- Latest news on conflict in Chechnya
- Pavletic announces formation of new post-election parliament in Croatia – Radio Free Europe
- World news
- Prlic to meet with Cook and discuss cooperation
- BiH Privatization Agency denies ICG statement that privatization in RS goes faster than in BiH Federation
- Alternative Council of Ministers Vice-president Tokic finds ICG statement "privatization process broken by SDA hard-liners" biased
- Liberal Party-GDS Coalition holds press conference to inform of the election platform
- Union of Zenica Steel Company distances itself from announced protest of workers on hold

- Prskalo chairs Mostar City Council session
- Energoinvest closes contract with Mexican branch of Elektroprivreda for delivery of technical equipment
- Konjic general hospital announces flu epidemic
- Ministry of Foreign Trade and Development presents BiH economic strategy for development
- Wood processing companies in Una-Sana Canton in difficult position
- Irregular income of traffic services causes shortages in Tuzla budget
- Del Ponte announces 17 new indictments in Balkan area, Karadzic included
- Pavletic announces formation of post-election parliament in Croatia – Radio Free Europe
- Poplasen's awards do not help ICTY indictees
- EC announces that BiH membership will be discussed at April session – Bicakcic

News Summary

Mandzic welcomes establishment of multiethnic police in Srebrenica

Srebrenica Municipality President Nesib Mandzic stated that the opening of a local IPTF station will provide more appropriate conditions for the work of the multiethnic administration. He added that he expects more intensive returns of Bosniak refugees. Speaking of multiethnic police, Mandzic welcomed the establishment and stated that they should be formed in accordance with the election results. Mandzic stated that the newest OHR and OSCE decision to return Skelani area to Srebrenica Municipality will contribute refugee returns.

01:04

Intimidation and personal revenge motive for Monday's explosion in Travnik as discovered by police investigation

A BiH Federation Interior Ministry, Central Bosnia Canton Interior Ministry and Travnik police investigation resulted in the arrest of two persons suspected of placing an explosive device under the car of Ejub Cejvan in Travnik. According to police, intimidation and personal revenge were the basic motives for this act. Central Bosnia Interior Minister Midhat Zubaca informed of the arrest. One of the suspects admitted that he committed a crime of intimidation out of personal revenge.

01:50

Pavletic announces formation of new post-election parliament in Croatia – Radio Free Europe

Acting Croatian President Vlatko Pavletic announced the formation of a new post-election parliament, Radio Free Europe reports. After meeting with Presidents of the HSS, IDS, HNS and LS, Pavletic announced that he will meet with representatives of all parliamentary parties in order to reach a final agreement on the formation of new the Parliament.

00:24