News Summary

Annan meets with members of BiH Council of Ministers

The BiH Council of Ministers informed UN General Secretary Kofi Annan on the situation in BiH, problems in implementation of Annex 7 of the Dayton Agreement and the BiH economy. Council Co-chairman Svetozar Mihajlovic stated after the meeting that both Bosnian entities and the three constituent people are more-or-less equally guilty for non-implementation of Annex 7. He rejected allegations by Co-chairman Haris Silajdzic that the RS and Serb people are solely to blame for non-implementation of the annex. Mihajlovic added that he does not accept the Silajdzic claim that returns only occur to Sarajevo and the BiH Federation. During the meeting, Silajdzic insisted on the establishment of BiH borders and reform of the legal system and pointed out the need for blanket laws.

BiH Council of Ministers holds session

The BiH Council of Ministers met on Tuesday and discussed numerous agenda points but did not reach a consensus on any one point. After the meeting, Deputy Co-chairman Neven Tomic affirmed that resignations are also one of the ways to de-block the Council's work, but added that there should be more political dialogue. Co-chairman Haris Silajdzic said that political obstructions to the Dayton Agreement are an issue and that they have been going on for so long that all Council members should resign before the end of year if they do not achieve concrete results. According to Silajdzic, the political destruction of the Dayton Agreement can be measured according to achieved results and the only part implemented in the Dayton Agreement was its military aspects.

TV BiH documentary film receives award at Krakow Film Festival

The author of the TV BiH documentary film Ponovi svoje ime, Nadja Mehmedbasic, received an award at the Third International Festival in Krakow. This award continues the old tradition of high quality productions by TV BiH in documentaries. Ethnic issues and the problems of people in contemporary times were the main topics of the Third Festival, at which Ponovi svoje ime won the Award for Special Documentary Expression. The documentary's main characteristics are the fact that it is contemporary in its idea and the author gives a totally different slate to the BiH tragedy. The film shows what BiH passed through and what it must overcome for a better future.
