

OHR BiH TV News Summary, 13 April 2000

News Headlines

- BiH House of Peoples adopts BiH Council of Ministers Law
- Washington to intensify monitoring of BiH economy
- All activities surrounding privatization of Holiday Inn ceased at request of US Ambassador Miller
- OSCE announces early election results for all 145 BiH municipalities
- BiH Federation House of Peoples discusses BiH Federation programs, session interrupted
- Bicakcic and Hrle to sign general collective agreement on Friday
- Indictees will be arrested as soon as possible – Robertson, visiting The Hague Tribunal
- World news
- Sarajevo police and regional IPTF appeal to citizens to report any unmarked mine fields
- Elections one step backwards for BiH – SDA
- GDS insists permanent election law be adopted, or they will submit new proposal of law
- BiH municipal elections resulted in Balkan custom, somewhere between nationalism and socialism – Republican Party President Stjepan Kljuic
- Pensioners Party complains of government bias in pension distribution
- SPP demands BiH Federation Parliament return to discussion on housing rights and cancel deadline for apartment purchases
- Peter Nicole and D.D. Zagreb sign agreement on exchange of KM in Croatia
- Center for Euro-Atlantic initiatives established in Sarajevo

- Mesic accepts sponsorship of Medjasi Children's Embassy Humane Olympic Games in Dubrovnik
- SOS children abuse hot-line
- Industrial explosives production to commence in BiH
- Copyright protection in BiH
- Sports
- Weather News Summary

Elections one step backwards for BiH – SDA

SDA spokesperson Adnan Jahic announced revisions and personnel changes in municipalities where the SDA achieved poor results or lost power, with emphasis on Sarajevo, Tuzla and Bosansko Podrinje Cantons. The SDA assessed the election results to be a step backwards for BiH, leading to a division within the Bosniak electorate between the SDA, the Party for BiH and the SDP.

00:29