News Summary

UN Security Council Chairman Richard Holbrook criticizes inefficiency of BiH Parliament and Presidency

The UN Security Council at Wednesday's session criticized the work of the BiH Parliament and its failure to adopt the draft BiH state border service law. In the strongest possible terms, Security Council Chairman Richard Holbrook criticized Jelavic, Radisic and Izetbegovic for failing to meet principles set down in the New York Declaration.

Holbrook's statement once again distributes guilt equally on all the sides in BiH – Izetbegovic cabinet

In response to statements by Richard Holbrook, the chairman of the UN Security Council, Alija Izetbegovic's cabinet issued a press release on Thursday. The cabinet said it was absurd to equalise guilt and avoiding naming names of those responsible for obstructions. Izetbegovic's cabinet reminds that the draft BiH border service law was rejected only by Serb delegates in the BiH House of Representatives.

Education systems in BiH under strong political influence – Council of Europe report on education in BiH

In post-Dayton BiH, the education systems in both entities are under strong political influence, says a report on education in BiH drafted by experts of the Council of Europe. The report was prepared for the World Bank. “All major decisions in the sector of education, including curricula and school textbooks, are made in the context of constant ethnic tensions” said the report. In order to overcome such a situation the Council of Europe recommend the establishment of common professional institutions in educations and better public awareness on this matter. “With international assistance these problems can be overcome, but only under the condition that education is not used as a platform for political and ethnic control” the report concluded.

The Hague Tribunal asks BiH Federation officials to deliver documents related to case on Darijo Kordic and Marijo Cerkez

The Hague Tribunal sent an official request to the BiH Federation asking for documents needed in the case against Darijo Kordic and Marijo Cerkez now before the Tribunal. All three requests for documents are addressed to Croat structures, namely the Croat Defense Council (HVO), Herceg-Bosnia and the HDZ BiH. In the next few days, the Trial Chamber will call on BiH Presidency Chairman Ante Jelavic, BiH Federation Defense Minister Miroslav Prce and Barisa Colak to testify before the Tribunal. The Hague Tribunal Prosecutor sent the request for documents in the General Tihomir Blaskic case two years ago and has still not received a positive response. During that period, Ante Jelavic was BiH Federation Defense Minister, which is the reason the ICTY will hold him personally responsible for obstructing cooperation with the Tribunal.

BiH Federation Government discusses report on work in 1999, agrees that frequency fees should be their income and not income of IMC

The BiH Federation Government opened its first session in 2000 in Sarajevo on Thursday with discussion on a report on government's work in 1999. Despite the objections of HDZ BiH ministers, the Government adopted an agreement establishing joint corporation for roads with the RS. The Government also discussed activities on establishment of Public Corporation for Broadcasting and Transmission Infrastructure and concluded that activities must be continued until a satisfactory solution is found. The Government stressed that it is necessary to insure that fees paid for the use of frequencies must be revenues of BiH Federation and not revenues of the International Commission for Media (sic), as is the case now.
