14 November 97, 19:30

Sarajevo – At today's session of the BiH Parliament Collegium, chaired by the newly named HR Senior Deputy Schumacher, and held at the OHR, it was confirmed that the session of both Houses of the Parliament will take place on November 18., in Sarajevo. At the meeting of the Collegium, the items on the agenda of the forthcoming meetings were considered. RS representatives insisted the discussion about the CoM law should be left for the time when laws on citizenship are proposed. Schumacher and the Federation representatives refused this, so the schedule will be determined at the meeting.

Sarajevo – Another meeting was held at the OHR, only this time it was chaired by Another Senior Deputy Klein. The main issue was the design of BiH flag. The RS representatives did not accept the solutions offered at the last meeting, but they proposed the images of the entities symbols to be displayed at the flag. Also, the letter from Presidency member Zubak was read, along with his proposals that the flag include the three national symbols. SDA Secretary General Ceman said that such solutions will not be accepted, because it has to be neutral. Ceman added that Klein will prepare some new proposals for the next meeting, which was not scheduled yet.

Zagreb – Croatian Government representative for public relations Jurica said that all the statements of BiH officials seemingly refuse the Croatian proposals, but that the official stand of the BiH Federation and the State is still awaited. Answering the question how come that all domestic and foreign diplomats consider the proposal as opposite of the spirit of DPA, Jurica said that Croatia is allowed to establish special relations with BiH entities under the Washington Agreement and the DPA. Western diplomats in Zagreb claim that the Croatian proposal is almost the same as the agreement between RS and FRY, which is not recognised by BiH or the International Community.
