Sarajevo – At today's session of the FBH Government, a debate on pension funds lasted almost two hours. As a result, it was decided to further elaborate amendments on the existing laws on pension funds in order to establish a unique pension funds for the entire Federation.

However, legislation related to pension funds was expected to be endorsed by the Parliament by the end of the year. Ministers confronted their views with regard to financing of pension funds. State revenues could not cover the funds fully, opined some ministers and pointed to the problem of insufficient funding. With the rather difficult economic situation, where the ratio between the pensioners and the employed working force was 4:1.4, the problem would be difficult to resolve.

Sarajevo – The affair Energopetrol seemed to be coming to its close, said the report. Chairman of the BH Presidency Alija Izetbegovic received President of the BH Union Sulejman Hrle to discuss a crisis in Energopetrol. Izetbegovic denounced that the SDA was in support of a newly appointed general manager of that company. However, he added that a new managing board of Energopetrol would be soon formed to select a new manager and that a thorough investigation into the alleged tax evasion worth 62 million Deutsche marks. by Eneropetrol would be carried out.

Neven Tomic, Deputy Co-Chairman in the CoM told the press that a session of this body scheduled for today was cancelled due to the absence of Co-Chairman Haris Silajdzic. According to Tomic, the postponement of the scheduled session came as "a result of incorrect attitude towards this state institution", underlining that, "under the Rules and Procedures, in the absence of Co-Chairman, Deputy Co-Chairman should chair sessions". None of the ministers from the CoM had been notified of Mr. Silajdzic's plans to be absent, he added.
