

OHR BiH TV News Summary, 16 September 2000

News Headlines:

- Saudi Prince Selman Bin Abdul Aziz opens mosque in Tuzla
- Professor Seid Husein Nasser arrives in Sarajevo to hold several lectures at Sarajevo Faculty of Theology, and has meeting with Izetbegovic
- After Prince Selman Abdul Aziz statement that Saudi people collected more than 200 millions DM in just one day, right after the Srebrenica disaster, the Association Mothers of Srebrenica and Podrinje issues press release saying that it did not receive any of this aid
- Story on life of inhabitants in village of Gornje Jaruske, near Lukavac
- Exhumation of mass grave Bunari, near Manjaca, completed, 21 body exhumed
- World news
- Kostunica does not see anything in Yugoslav presidential competencies that should allow cooperation with The Hague – News from Yugoslavia
- Sarajevo Canton police officers arrest Nijaz Karkelja under suspicion of shooting perpetrated in Ilidza butcher shop
- SDP BiH discusses preparations for upcoming elections at Saturday session in Sarajevo
- SNSD Main Board adopts party election platform for elections at the session in Doboj
- Bosnian Party (BOSS) supports OSCE announcement on campaign to educate citizens to fight corruption more efficiently
- 27 houses of Bosniak and Serb returnees reconstructed in Glamoc area

- Travnik farmers have to conduct diagnostic research of cattle infected with Q-fever
- Story on blind girl Tanja Petrovic and her gift for singing
- Association of Una River Environmentalist fights for river's preservation