The Hague Tribunal indictment against Arkan will remain sealed – Del Ponte

The Hague Tribunal Chief Prosecutor Carla del Ponte stated that the indictment against Zeljko Raznjatovic Arkan would remain sealed. This decision is based on the interest of investigations against those who sponsored Arkan. Although she is not ready to reveal crimes and locations cited in the indictment, Del Ponte stated at a Monday press conference that the prosecution closely investigated and documented Arkan's activities in East Slavonia and east and northwest BiH between 1991 and 1995. Del Ponte expressed regret that Arkan will not appear before the ICTY in response to charges raised against him. In conclusion, she expressed hope that those who shared responsibility for his crimes would soon be arrested.
