BiH Ambassador to Croatia, Muratovic issued a press statement, regarding the Agreement on Special Relations between BiH and Croatia. Muratovic said that the decision on the signing the agreement will follow after tomorrow's mentioned Article 13 of the Special Relations Agreement and the Ploce-Neum Agreement. Namely, this article regulates that the Special Relations Agreement will become legislative immediately after signed, which also explains Ganic's postponing, while the Ploce-Neum Agreement will become legislative 30 days after the final exchange of diplomatic documents, by which the sides inform each other that all conditions are fulfilled.

Federation President Ganic's cabinet issued a press release which says that the meeting in Zagreb between the Federation and Croatian representatives, was not scheduled for November 16. The Croatian side initiated the proposal to sign the agreement on Nov 16 in Zagreb. Ganic's cabinet informed the OHR, US Embassy, and Croatian side that Bosnian side will not arrive to Zagreb due to incomplete analysis of the Agreement. Simultaneously, statements of Mr. Klein and Mr. Granic about absence of Bosnian delegation from the allegedly scheduled meeting are inappropriate.
