News Summary

BiH parliamentarians are not working enough on BiH Election Law – Barry Disappointed with the lack of activity on the BiH Election Law, OSCE Head of Mission Robert Barry called on BiH parliamentarians to strive for a compromise. Barry said that, although parliamentarians are expressing discontent with certain provisions of the Law, they are not proposing amendments to help reach a compromise. He reminded that the Election Law was presented at the end of October and that it has not yet been voted on. Barry said he is prepared for further cooperation, expecting proactive participation from parliamentarians. “The way things stand now, they are not doing anything about this” said Barry.

Nationality was not factor in dismissing officials – Haselock

The OHR replied to a statement by Alija Izetbegovic that the replacement of Bosniak officials was carried out to achieve ethnic balance. Deputy High Representative for Media Issues Simon Haselock said, “22 officials were removed from office because of their individual responsibility. Nationality was not a factor in deciding on the dismissals.”

Dayton implementation and readiness to resolve problems will have direct impact on our investments – Miller

As the dismissals (of BiH officials) were made public, Mostar officials received warning letters that problems in Mostar must urgently be resolved. US Ambassador to BiH Thomas Miller reiterated this request to Mostar Mayor Ivan Prskalo and Deputy Mayor Safet Orucevic during his visit to Mostar on Wednesday. Miller was especially interested in the rotation of lead posts in the Canton and Mostar. Miller added, “Dayton implementation and the readiness to resolve problems would have a direct impact on our investments in BiH.”

Tuzla Canton Government crisis continues with resignation of Deputy Premier and three ministers

Tuzla Canton Deputy Premier Mehmed Barjaktarevic, Minister of Education, Science and Sports Ismet Osmanovic, Finance Minister Muhibija Delic and Refugee Minister Adib Dzozic have all resigned from office. “They have resigned for moral reasons and have accepted such a decision to enable normal court proceedings” said Tarik Arapcic, the Governor of the Tuzla Canton. A demand by the Cantonal Prosecutor to strip them of their official immunity incited their resignations, since the Tuzla Canton Constitution grants them immunity, in which the Cantonal Assembly has a say. It is alleged that these Tuzla officials abused their official duties and misappropriated public funds.

SFOR inspecting TV Erotel transmitters – Monroe

The HDZ BiH Main Board has replaced the entire TV Erotel Executive Board to resolve current problems and continue with the construction of public broadcasting system in BiH. TV Erotel has appealed an IMC decision to interrupt its broadcasting. According to SFOR MND Southwest spokesperson David Monroe, (SFOR) has not undertaken measures to stop TV Erotel broadcasts, but are inspecting all locations where the station has transmitters.

Erotel director announces resignation – HINA

Director of Mostar TV station Erotel Branko Colak and representative of the Executive Board of minority owners of Croat TV Erotel and HRT Editor Jozo Curic announced their resignations in Mostar on Thursday evening, HRT reports. As reason for the announced resignations, they cited disagreements with the dissolution of Erotel and HRT broadcasting in the BiH Federation and insufficient support for TV Erotel, HINA reports.
