Flash News – PES ordered the removal of all posters of indicted war criminal Karadzic by November 21, 17:00, otherwise, SDS will be sanctioned with removal of their candidates from elections lists.

Lukavica – HR Senior Deputy Schumacher and the newly named Minister for Economy and Foreign Trade Kurtovic attended the CoM session for the first time. The CoM discussed the laws on citizenship, passports and the work of CoM. Informing the press about the meeting in Lukavica, CoM Co-chairman Bosic said that the CoM agreed only about the Draft Law on the CoM. The Serb representatives did not accept Article 7 of the Law on Passports, that regards the front cover of the passport, where is supposed to be written 'Bosnia and Herzegovina', and on the first inner page, the name of the entity. The Serb side also did not agree about the Law on Citizenship, what was commented by CoM Co-chairman Silajdzic: "As for the Bosniak and Croat sides are concerned, we agreed about the OHR proposals. They still cannot accept that." Answering the question what was HR Deputy Schumacher's opinion, Silajdzic said the OHR proposal is the final, and it should be accepted.

Banja Luka/Sarajevo – UNHCR High Commissioner for Refugees Ogata visited RS President Plavsic yesterday. Ogata said that Plavsic is open to co-operation regarding refugee return, and appealed to all Bosniaks and Croats to return to Banja Luka. However, says Ogata, Plavsic said that the matter of Serb refugees in Banja Luka must be resolved first. Ogata added that the only way for stability in the region and the return of refugees is that the International Troops remain in BiH after June next year. Ogata also met with Izetbegovic today. It was said that it is worrying that the dynamic of return is lower in this year than in the previous year. Ogata also visited the Federation President Soljic and the Association of Refugees.
