The meeting in Belgrade is a public secret in the RS. Allegedly, a compromise was made at this meeting that a radical will replace the RS President Plavsic, while the "Sloga" candidate Zivko Radisic will replace Krajisnik in the Presidency. Newspapers in Banja Luka are confirming these rumours, while voters are divided, one side is celebrating and the other one is concerned. Quoting the speculations from SP of the RS Belgrade's daily "Danas" reports on possibility of Coalition between RS Radicals, the SDS, Socialist Party of the RS and Plavsic's party SNS. Serbian Radicals leader Seselj and RS Radicals leader Poplasen said that Radicals are considering the possibility of coalition with the SNS, because, as they said, this would lead to replacement of Biljana Plavsic.
