BiH Federation House of Representatives continued its session, discussing, among other issues, the problems with the Federal Prosecutor's Office, and the draft Law on the Federal Television. Federation Prosecutor Babic said that re-organisation of the Law on Public Prosecution is necessary, because the Federation Prosecutor's Office has no jurisdiction over cantonal prosecution. The second part of the session was dedicated to the draft Law on the Federation Television, but the session was ceased, due to the lack of quorum. (71 delegate was present out of 72 which is required for the quorum)
