News Summary

Indicted war criminals will be arrested – General Clark

NATO SACEUR General Wesley Clark arrived on a farewell visit to BiH. At a press conference, Clark stated that indicted war criminals will be arrested, but did not say precisely when or how. He explained that SFOR will operate in the future, but added that the International Community cannot do the job alone. He stated that responsibility lies in BiH authorities, adding that there are still communities in BiH where indicted war criminals live and move freely, apparently with the protection of authorities.

RS National Assembly discusses election of second Vice-president

The RS National Assembly discussed the election of a second Assembly Vice-president, but it is still an unresolved issue. CD Coalition delegate Munib Jusufovic is a candidate for this post. SRS delegates opposed the election of Jusufovic, explaining that the second Assembly Vice-president cannot be a member of a party that does not recognize the RS in its program and negotiates a unitary BiH. RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik supported the election of Munib Jusufovic.
