

OHR BiH TV News Summary, 25 December 1998

Eight civilians were killed yesterday in Kosovo. New movements of Serbian forces were recorded yesterday.

1:30

Pope John Paul the Second addressed to Catholics world-wide congratulating Christmas in 58 languages. Cardinal Vinko Puljic also held the Christmas Mass congratulating the Day of Christ's birth to all Catholics, with best wishes for peace and love amongst people.

2:00

Bosnia – Tuzla, Bihac, Travnik and Pale, where the Christmas Midnight Dinners were held in the presence of not only Catholics, but also members of other confessions.

1:30

"The Declaration to Sarajevo" Association held a press conference and appealed on local and international institutions that deal with housing to do their utmost to enable refugee return.

1:30

The new refugee centre for Kosovo refugees was opened in Rakovica. The newly opened centre should enable accommodation for about 500 Kosovo refugees.

1:30

BiH Federation Railway Company warned BiH Federation Government that they would go for the strike on 30 of December, if their salaries were not paid by that time.

0:30