

OHR BiH TV News Summary, 26 August 2000

News Headlines:

- Workers of Bihac-based company Trgovina end their hunger strike
- Former senior official of Serbian Government Ivan Stambolic disappears in Belgrade on Friday
- Yugoslav Army continuing to carry out bizarre activities in Montenegro
- World news
- No reactions to SFOR inspection of central postal building in Sarajevo on Friday
- IOM Mission to BiH will enable BiH citizens, victims of forced labour camps in Nazi Germany, to submit claims for compensation to German Government
- Ruling political parties in BiH joining in their efforts to intimidate returnees – Chairman of Alternative Council of Ministers (AMV) Sejfidin Tokic
- Bosniak nation risks extinction – BOSS President Mirnes Ajanovic speaks at VKBI roundtable in Sarajevo on Saturday
- Two-days conference on equal rights of men and women takes place in Sarajevo
- Trebinje firemen take control of fire outside of that town
- Music Festival 'Golden Note' opens in Mostar
- Bono Vox buys minefield in BiH for 2,200 Swiss francs, and money to be used to sweep this minefield
- Bosniak returnees erect new tent settlement in Potocari village, Srebrenica Municipality
- 10,000 Bosniaks attend opening ceremony of first rebuilt mosque in RS in Kozarusa, just outside of Prijedor
- Catholic Church in BiH prepares for Main Eucharistic

Congress in Zenica on 2 September

- TV BiH commemorates second anniversary of death of journalist Mladen Paunovic
- Busko Lake in Herzegovina faces ecological catastrophe due to human negligence
- Sarajevo Film Festival concludes with presentation of awards in all categories
- Sarajevo hosts participants of annual bikers' festival Motorijada
- Sports
- Weather