STRONG>Sarajevo – At the regular press conference of IC representatives, the main Prosecutor of ICTY, Arbour, who is on a visit to Bosnia, said that ICTY will ask from the IC permanent support for ICTY work and its policy of secret indictments. Arbour added that this policy can stop the DPA obstruction, as shown this summer when two of the Serbs were arrested for war crimes. Arbour also said that it is outrageous that those who are responsible for the arrest of Karadzic have not yet accomplished their tasks. Arbour blamed the Government for Karadzic's freedom, but said that it is good that IC troops are still in BiH. Arbour added that Karadzic's possible escape to some other country is an absolutely unacceptable solution. She also expressed her dissatisfaction at the low level of co-operation from FRY and Croatia, regarding war criminal extradition.

New York – At the UN HQ, a press conference of NATO and the Russian Permanent Council was held. It was said that NATO and Russia had a common view of BiH, and appealed to all for full implementation of the DPA, implementation of the election results and complete fulfilment of the Sintra agreements. In response to questions concerning NATO and Russian military co-operation, the Russian FA Minister, Primakov, said that BiH is the best example of that. NATO Secretary Gen. Solana said that the SFOR mission to BiH will not be changed and that SFOR's main task is to create a safe environment, where others could do their jobs. Asked if there would be some specific actions taken, Solana said: "Look at me, I can't answer you" However, his answer about the safe environment may suggest that, after it has been created, NATO special forces may arrest war criminals if such a decision is taken. A high ranked NATO official, who wanted to remain anonymous, said that, if needed, SFOR might be used against provocative media, for the implementation of election results or in preparation for the forthcoming elections in RS.

Sarajevo – BiH President Izetbegovic's advisor, Hajric, said that the elections in RS cannot be held without BiH Parliament approval, since RS is a part of BiH. Hajric disagreed with the suggestion that RS elections should be held according to the laws of RS. Hajric also said that BiH cannot accept those elections for another reason – the discrimination of the non-Serb population in RS. Hajric added that many of the people in RS who are not Serbs do not have the right to vote.
