27 October 97, 19:30

The office of the President of the Central Bosnian cantonal Government issued a statement informing that "one Ivica Domic was brutally killed in the village Podkraj, municipality Travnik on 26 October at 18:30 hrs, while his father and brother were seriously wounded". The attack was carried out by an unknown perpetrator who approached the Domic's house and opened fire. The local police immediately initiated an investigation and informed IPTF and SFOR. The statement underlined that "having analyzed the problem of the last several killings of Croat citizens, it can be asserted that everything points to organized criminal activities with elements of political terrorism, threatening establishment of cantonal and federation institutions". Deputy governor of the CBC Adnan Terzic stated that "this criminal act occurred at a time when both Bosniak and Croat representatives in the Travnik municipality fully committed themselves to the federation concept". Terzic appealed that "everyone should take part in the struggle against crime". The SDA Travnik condemned the act of killing and requested an immediate and thorough investigation.

At a press conference in Sarajevo, international officials informed the press about the event in Travnik. UN Spokesman told the conference that an early morning explosion in Brcko damaged the foundation of an Orthodox church.
