

OHR BiH TV News Summary, 28 August 2000

News Headlines:

- Dominik Ilijasevic, suspected of war crimes against Bosniak civilians in Stupni Do, arrested in Kiseljak by BiH Federation police
- Bob Dole inaugurates Missing Persons Institute in Sarajevo
- Great Britain donates only 10,000 pounds for identification of bodies in BiH
- Commemoration for massacre at Sarajevo market Markale, where 43 persons were killed by mortar shell, held in Sarajevo on Monday, its fifth anniversary
- The Hague Tribunal continues trial of five Serbs indicted for war crimes against civilians in Omarska concentration camp
- World Congress of Religious Leaders opens in UN building in New York, Bosnian Islamic leader in attendance
- Interim management at Komercijalna Banka Tuzla undertakes steps to collect outstanding debts
- BiH Central Bank opens branch office in Brcko District
- Rector of Mostar University Marko Tadic resigns from this post
- Resignation of Mostar University Council and myself was compromise solution – TV BiH live interview with resigned Rector Marko Tadic
- World news
- US Government to donate another $5.1 million for minority refugee returns in BiH through USAID
- Stability Pact donates 200,000 KM for reconstruction of houses in Zenica and Jajce municipalities
- 10,000 KM collected for refugees in action 'One Mark-One Brick' organised by BiH Refugee Association

- RS Government will respect RS National Assembly's conclusions regarding pensions – Dodik promises at meeting with RS Pensioners Association delegation
- Ten firemen injured while fighting fire on Mount Vlasic
- State of emergency proclaimed in Maglaj Municipality due to numerous fires
- More than 50 fires registered in Livno Municipality in past 7 days
- BiH society is in collapse – Lagumdzija in meeting with Ambassadors Frowick and Hand
- LDS urges citizens and companies in BiH Federation not to pay unemployment benefit tax because only 5 (five) new workers have been employed in BiH Federation this year
- Ambassador Hans Jorg Kretschmer meets with BiH Republican party President Stjepan Kljuic to discuss political situation in BiH
- One person killed and two seriously injured in traffic accident in Bosanska Krupa
- SFOR carries out manoeuvres at 'Brave Barbara' training ground outside of Glamoc
- US Ambassador Thomas Miller's wife Bonnie visits certified accountants school for refugees in Sarajevo
- Sports
- Weather