Reacting to HR Westendorp's letter containing tasks to be done 1999, Una/Sana Canton President Veladzic said that most of the tasks in 1998 were fulfilled, including election results implementation and accommodation for Serb member of the municipality council. A big surprise was also Westendorp's demand to cease the practice of non-recognising education that students in Velika Kladusa and Cazin obtained during the war. Veladzic also said he s conducting his work with highest responsibility and that all issues are verifiable so there is no reason for any concern whatsoever.
