

OHR BiH TV News Summary, 28 March 2000

News Headlines

- IC seems to be worried over BiH Federation privatization process, Miller says general belief is that Holiday Inn was sold suspiciously
- Miller, Izetbegovic and Bicakcic discuss privatization
- 3-4% of property privatized so far, Ganic recommends measures to prevent misuse of certificates
- Kakanj cement company privatized
- ZAP transformation is precondition for entering European Trade Union
- Stability Pact holds two-day Donors' Conference in Brussels
- Dutch soldier testifies in Krstic trial as witness of Srebrenica massacre
- Contact Group holds session on Kosovo issues
- Farrand and Izetbegovic meet in Brka to discuss Brcko District issues
- We will judge Farrand through returns – Jerkovic relays Izetbegovic statement
- Children of Bosniak returnees to Dobož still without school
- BiH women's organizations discuss position of women in BiH
- BiH Trade Union demands General Work Agreement be compiled by 6 April or they will hold general strike
- President of Bihac Cantonal Court Hasan Pjanic resigns in support of judicial system reforms
- Herceg-Bosna Cantonal Government to ban 'ERONET' if taxes remain unpaid after next eight days
- FBI team of investigators meeting with Klein regarding Leutar case postponed until Thursday

- Family and friends visit Leutar's grave
- International Organization for Missing Persons builds forensic facility in Podrinje
- BiH saves Europe by being its car depot
- TV BiH to change satellite frequency on Wednesday
- Sports
- Weather
- 13 candidates removed, two warned and two unfit for candidacy – Domi for EASC
- HB Cantonal Assembly re-balances 1999 and 2000 budgets
- Mostar 2000 Economy Fair begins