News Summary

Zoric denies information that official Zagreb plans to interrupt diplomatic relations with BiH

BH Press information that official Zagreb plans to interrupt diplomatic relations with BiH due to BiH Council of Ministers Co-chairman Haris Silajdzic's statements about Croatian President Franjo Tudjman's responsibility for the conflict between Croats and Bosniaks brought many reactions. Croatian Ambassador to BiH Damir Zoric said that this is not an information at all, because it does not have any elements of information. "We want relations between BiH and Croatia to be better and progressive, not in regressive, and it is sure that such false information contributes to regression," Zoric asserted, adding that interruption of diplomatic relations is neither Croatia's aim nor interest. BiH Ambassador to Croatia Hasan Muratovic stated, "we have gotten no sign from the Croatian Government that would support such information."
