BiH institutions must have access to papers SFOR confiscated in Mostar

The Party for BiH demands that central BiH institutions ask for insight into documentation confiscated by SFOR in Mostar, which contain anti-Dayton activities of the National Security Service (SNS) and its connections to the Croat information service (HIS). The party President assessed the past year as unsuccessful in regards to return, saying that there cannot be true return without security for returnees.

All achievements of IC in BiH were imposed – Society for Endangered Peoples of BiH

"All of the achievements made by the International Community in BiH over the last four years have been forcefully implemented" concluded the Society for Endangered Peoples in BiH. In its report on human rights in BiH, the Society assessed that those who caused the death of more than 200,000 civilians were rewarded, because BiH is actually a state divided into three ethnic regions with separate armies, police forces, and judicial systems.

Bicakcic's statements on Abdic extradition from Croatia aimed at stopping DNZ progress in Una-Sana Canton

The Democratic People's Community (DNZ) reacted to BiH Federation Prime Minister Edhem Bicakcic and Interior Minister Mehmed Zilic's statements regarding the readiness of Croatia to extradite Fikret Abdic to the BiH Federation judicial system, saying the statements are nothing more than another attempt to prevent the expansion of the DNZ in Una-Sana Canton. At a press conference in Velika Kladusa on Wednesday, DNZ officials expressed their disappointment with the statements of some politicians, who helped the SDA regime in public slandering of Fikret Abdic and the DNZ.
