President of Finland Marti Ahtisaari arrived to Sarajevo Tuesday, and met with Chairman of the BiH Presidency Alija Izetbegovic and newly elected members of the Presidency Ante Jelavic and Zivko Radisic. Izetbegovic and Finish president discussed the current situation in area, the implementation of the Dayton agreement and post-election perspectives for the implementation of the agreement. Izetbegovic said that there is a positive trend, but that election results in the RS were contradictory, because a hard-liner has been elected for the RS president, while a representative of a democratic option won the seat in the BiH Presidency. President Ahtisaari also met with the UN Secretary General special envoy Elisabeth Rehn and SFOR Commander General Shinseki. Ahtisaari also visited Finnish SFOR troops located in Doboj.
