Sarajevo – French President Jacques Chirac is expected to visit BiH tomorrow. Chirac's visit to BiH represents a sign of French support for a multi-ethnic Bosnia and new political leadership of Bosnian Serbs, estimates Radio France International. This will be a good opportunity for us to discuss the stance of France regarding the strengthening of the BiH ties and the European integration, in detail, Mirza Hajric, Izetbegovic's political advisor told the news. He had in mind the full BiH membership in the Council of Europe as well as establishing of special ties between EU and BiH and a strengthening of its safety through the Partnership for Peace.

Sarajevo – An initiative for establishing the constitutional equality for the Bosniak, Croatian and Serb people was a key topic of the Round Table discussion held in Sarajevo today. The organisers of the meeting were the Serb Civic Council, the first initiator which a year ago demanded the harmonising of the entities constitutions with the BiH constitution, Congress Council of the Bosnian Intellectuals, Croatian National Council and the Independent Association Circle 99. A stimulus for the organisation of the Round Table session devoted politically and professionally to this topic, was Alija Izetbegovic. Deputy HR Hanns Schumacher, as well as the representatives of the BiH and Federation Parliament and representatives of some political parties and NGOs were present. The BiH Constitutional Court should soon discuss this topic. The introductory address of Zarko Papic revealed the absurdity of the current situation in which the Bosniaks and the Croats in the RS represent a minority, and the Serbs are minority in Federation. The relevant bodies and institutions were called upon on this occasion, to enable an equality of the three peoples as well as all other peoples on the whole BiH territory.
