Tuzla – Footage of a repeated picture of returnees arriving to bus stations from all sorts of directions, mainly Germany! They wait for hours at the bus stations with their luggage, children, old and sick, not knowing where to go and what to do. The report criticises the officials for not organising at least an information point where they could get the basic information (on return). We do not diminish anything that the local authorities and the internationals do for us, but this is not enough for our six years' exodus to be solved, one of the returnees told the news. The concrete problem of returnees from eastern Bosnia, Srebrenica, etc. was emphasised.
