News Summary:

HQ for Protection of Dignity of Homeland War and Protection of Croat Rights in BiH organise protest in western Mostar (01:44)

The HQ for the Protection of Dignity of the Homeland War and Protection of Croat Rights in BiH organized a peaceful protest rally in west Mostar to express dissatisfaction with the current status of the Croat people in BiH. The organization's president Nino Vidovic stated he undoubtedly shares the opinion of those in attendance that every attack against Croats in BiH must encourage unity. Rally speakers, including HVIDR-a President Miro Grabovac Titan, condemned IC bias and demanded that the IC and BiH Federation officials stop criminalizing the Homeland War and stop the illegal use ‘black-masked units.’
