OHR BiH TV News Summary, 6 June 1999

News Headlines

- Kosovo negotiations continue in Kumanovo
- Brussels hopes for signing of agreement on Sunday
- Strikes will intensify if Serb forces do not retreat – Robertson
- Serbia has no future with Milosevic – Blair
- Serb forces are using time remaining before arrival of NATO forces to hide evidence of crimes – The Observer
- Milosevic will face trial no matter how long it takes – The Hague Tribunal
- Serb forces hit village on Albanian side of Pastnik mountain – OSCE monitors
- Preparations for G8 Foreign Affairs Ministers meeting next week in Bonn
- Silajdzic meets with Kuwaiti-Arab economic development fund to review current projects
- Circle 99 holds discussion on culture & ideology
- Novi Grad days to be held from 6 June to 7 July
- World news
- Workers of Konjic furniture factory fight for their jobs
- World Bank to issue survey on future of energy
- Refugees return to Bosanski Novi and Prijedor
- 20 Bosniak families return to Koraj village in RS
- Refugees from Klis, Olovo Municipality endure poor living conditions
- Opening of Adil-Beg Mosque in Sarajevo
- Arts
- Summer tourism on Una and Sana well on the way