OHR BiH TV News Summary, 9 May 1999

News Headlines

- NATO bombs Djakovica area
- NATO hits Interior Ministry building in Valjevo and Post Office in Kragujevac
- Kosmaj and Rudnik transmitters targeted in NATO bombing
- Chernomyrdin talks by telephone with Milosevic
- Rugova requests deployment of international troops to Kosovo – Steiner
- Yeltsin requests peaceful resolution
- Pope and leader of Romanian Orthodox Church request peaceful resolution
- Protests in Beijing, US consulate burned
- Mandela will not prevent Milosevic from settling in South Africa
- Robinson visits Montenegro and meets with Djukanovic
- Neither pilot nor military technology responsible for bombing of Chinese Embassy – Shea
- Battles between KLA and Serbian forces in Kosovo continue
- KLA representatives deny killing Agani
- 10,000 refugees leave Kosovo on Saturday
- Fischer and Bonino visit refugee camps in Macedonia
- UNHCR to relocate Kosovo refugees in Albania from border with Kosovo
- Day of Victory Over Fascism celebrated throughout BiH
- Citizens of Duga, near Prozor-Rama protest against building of water plant
- BiH Federation Ministry of Traffic and Communications to elect companies for work on construction of Sarajevo-Zenica highway
- Inter-entity roundtable on privatization held in Zenica

- Reconstruction of mosques to begin in west Mostar
- Each attack on journalists presents threat to freedom of media and rule of law – OHR
- Circle 99 discusses introduction of theology in school curriculums
- Autopsy performed on 23 bodies exhumed in village Jezero completed in Visoko
- German Embassy organizes children’s party in center of Sarajevo on Day of Europe