

OHR BiH TV News Summary, 9 October 2000

News Headlines:

- 23 Bosniaks indicted for war crimes against Croat civilians – President of HN Cantonal Court Castimir Mandaric at special press conference
- List with names of 23 Bosniak indictees available on TV BiH Tele-text – TV BiH anchorman
- Mostar Veterans Organisation JOB announces it will not permit its members to be identified with those who committed war crimes such as rape and the murder of innocent civilians and will try to ensure assistance to families of indictees
- Sarajevo Canton Court drops charges against Vasic for murder of BiH Deputy Premier Hakiya Turajlic but sentences him to 7 years in prison for other crimes
- World news
- EU ministers lift some sanctions levelled against Yugoslavia
- Possible implementation of projects similar to those in region will be discussed with Kostunica – European Commissioner for Foreign Affairs Chris Patten
- We have to help the Yugoslav people as soon as possible – EU Security Commissioner Solana
- Kostunica must establish confidence – Head of UN Mission to Kosovo Bernard Kouchner
- Yugoslav Premier Bulatovic resigns
- Serbian parliamentary parties agree to 19 December elections
- Serbia is much closer to end of crisis than yesterday – Djindjic
- SRS Serbia President Vojislav Seselj attacked in Belgrade by protesters

- Serbian Parliamentary Caucus agrees on dismissal of Marjanovic government and establishes transitional authority
- Kostunica and Djukanovic agree to schedule session of Yugoslav Supreme Defence Council to harmonise staff changes in army
- Izetbegovic holds farewell meeting with BiH Federation Army and Defence Ministry members following his decision to withdraw from BiH Presidency
- Dramatic changes have occurred in neighbouring countries – Izetbegovic to BiH Army war commanders and BiH Federation Army officers
- BiH Foreign Ministry delegation, led by Prlic, visits Hungary
- BiH Central Bank to organise two-day international conference on reform of BiH banking system starting Wednesday
- Deadline for voucher investments in privatisation investment funds in RS extended until 15 November – RS Privatisation Agency
- No final decision yet from Zenica-Doboj Canton Government on allocating 55 million KM received by canton's privatisation agency from Kakanj Cement factory privatisation
- World news
- Jewish community celebrates 5,761st Jewish New Year
- International TV Festival Sarajevo ends with awards for best films and scripts
- PEC removes three officials illegally occupying refugee apartments; Nijaz Covic, SDA City Councilman from Hadzici, denies OSCE allegations that he used two apartments simultaneously (00:15)
- HDZ delegation meets Mostar Mayor Orucevic and Deputy Mayor Tomic to discuss city's economic situation and creation of better living conditions
- New processes will begin in Balkans in post-Milosevic era – Dodik at meeting with Serb returnees to Mostar

(00:41)

- Ruling parties not able to drag BiH out of crisis – Zubak at first NHI Public Forum in Bihac (00:25)
- Party for BiH delegation visits Sarajevo economic institute (00:36)
- LDS election campaign focuses on future of BiH youth; data reveals 62% of young people considering emigration: greatest critique of existing economic, social and political system – Kadic (00:38)
- PDP President Ivanic express satisfaction with fact that democratic changes in Yugoslavia occurred peacefully (00:41)
- Sports
- Weather