Sanctions of the European Union toward FRY are being implemented as of today. Germany was the first to ban the Yugoslav Air Company flights, which was also the motive for political scandal. Namely, FRY President Milosevic refused to meet with Belgian FA Minister Erik Derycke, before his departure to Pristina. It was said that refusal came with no reason. Vienna Ministry of Air Traffic said that regular flight Belgrade-Vienna was conducted as scheduled. Vienna officials said that more legal details need to be provided along with the decision on banning the flights to YAT.
