Oslobodjenje Sat, 'Pogled' supplement, pgs 28/29 'I don't know whether municipal boards financed Karadzic' by Vedrana Zivak – In an interview to Oslobodjenje, Acting SDS President Dragan Cavic says that HR decision of removal of 49 SDS officials was a direct "attack against the fundamental human rights" and further comments on the impact the decision had on the party: "Such attack any political party or organization would handle with difficulty. You cannot say that it was not a serious attack, literary an organized political knockout... We have overcome the most dramatic stage of the crisis and I think that the conditions for formal functioning of SDS have been created." Asked to comment a statement by US Ambassador to BiH Clifford Bond that SDS should have been banned, Cavic says: "That would be the harshest demonstration of the democracy's fall down... that would not be good for this country." Answering the question how much money has been spent by SDS to finance Radovan Karadzic, Cavic responded: "To my knowledge SDS has not spent a pfening [for that purpose]... I cannot know and I don't know in which way certain municipal boards spent their finances, as they had status of a legal entity and their own bank accounts. I undertook a number of measures. In past few days we created a single account, and all others will be shut down... the single books will be kept, and a list of entire property, obligations and debts will be made. We will create a centralized way of leading all financial transfers."

Paravac: SDS operations were brought into the question	Dnevni Avaz Sat pg 11 'SDS operations were brought into the question', Nezavisne Novine, Saturday pg. 5 'BiH should withdraw the lawsuit against SCG' by Beta, Glas Srpske, Saturday cover and pg. 3 'The lawsuit should be withdrawn' not signed – Serb member of BiH Presidency and SDS member Borislav Paravac has stated that the recent removals at SDS had not weakened the party and he reiterated that BiH should withdraw the lawsuit against Serbia and Montenegro. Upon HR Ashdown's order on a special audit on SDS due to a suspicion that the party is financing the work of the net of helpers of Radovan Karadzic and Ravna Gora Chetnik Movement, Paravac claims that 'OHR has a developed practice not to present evidence on claims it brings'.
VN editorial on Ashdown	Vecernje Novosti, Sunday pg. 2 'Pasic and Ashdown' by Zeljko Vukovic – The author quotes HR Paddy Ashdown's comment upon reactions of Serb population on his decision on the removals, as saying 'There was no public demonstrations, which means that people does not think I have done anything unjust'. The author says that the current masters of colonies and their subordinates are measuring pulse of native population. He says: "it is very simple – they are not complaining, therefore apply more pressure". He compares it with practice Nikola Pasic had applied in past, also on Serb people.
DL op ed on political situation following HR decision	Dnevni List Saturday pg 11 'With whom Tihic will go on iftar this year' (iftar is an evening meal during Ramadan fast) by Z. Jukic – DL carries an editorial on the recent political crises emerged upon the decision on removals of RS officials passed by High Representative Paddy Ashdown. The author says: "The last conflict between SDS and SDA, that received the considerable HR's support in its many segments, is just an introduction in the things use during the next pre-election campaign..." The author goes on to say that a very small number of BiH citizens will vote at the coming elections and according to Jukic this will not be so significant blow for ruling parties as it will be for the HR who will finally have to explain to his leaders in Brussels how come that apathy rules among BiH citizens after the HR's, pompously announced reform processes.

Diplomatic forum on political relations btw Croatia and BiH	Oslobodjenje Sat pg 7 'Due to internal problems, BiH is not fully equal partner', mentioned on cover, by A. Omeragic, Slobodna Dalmacija Saturday pg 16 'BiH burdened by shadow of past' by B. Kristo, Dnevni List Saturday pg BiH has certain limits for normal functioning' by V. Vujovic and Vecernji List Saturday pg 2 'Republic of Croatia will demand change of Agreement on Ploce Port' by D. Jazvic – Talking at the diplomatic forum on political and economic relations between BiH and Croatia, BiH Ambassador to Croatia Zlatko Dizdarevic was very critical about behaviour of the Governments in both Sarajevo and Zagreb. According to Dizdarevic, still there is no enough readiness in BiH and Croatia to apply European standards in bilateral relations. Dizdarevic also confirmed that most probably Croatia will demand thorough change of Agreement on PlocePort.
NN editorial on political situation	Nezavisne Novine, Saturday pg. 7 'To which extent does Terzic rule?' by Mato Djakovic – The author says he had met with Neven Tomic, former politician, former HDZ member, former Prime Minister of BiH Government, former Mayor of Mostar. Tomic told him there is no use to deal with politics in BiH nowadays. He explained it with the fact that once it was possible to negotiate and talk with the international community, during the mandates of Bildt, Westerndorp, Steiner even Petritsch, while today, according to Tomic, HR Ashdown only sends his deputies to CoM or Presidency to deliver his order. They can either respect the order and enact laws, or move aside. Should they fail to do this, the international community would remove them instead. The author wonders how much of the authority do Sulejman Tihic, Borislav Paravac or Dragan Covic actually has. He emphasizes that he does not oppose Paddy Ashdown nor the international community, but he also says: 'Is there anyone smart enough to explain to Paddy Ashdown and international community that this is not Iraq. We are not terrorists. One can talk to us. If we respect you, then you should also respect us'.
