Zekic, Vecernji List, Sat, pg 2 'Bishop Peric sends letter to leaders of Mostar', by M. M. – The Bishop of Mostar-Duvno Dr. Ratko Peric said he could not attend the Old bridge opening ceremony due to previous engagements. In his letter to the Mayor and Deputy Mayor, Bishop Peric amongst other things says: "We are also aware that the reconstructed Old Bridge cannot be a symbol of tolerance, coexistence and peace if the Christ's Cross on Hum (NB: a hill overlooking Mostar) represents a religious thorn in side of a part of citizens of Mostar. We would love if the religious sign was considered a symbol of love and peace between people and God and among people, which is in fact its religious message."

Reactions by Ivanic, Covic, Paravac

Dnevni Avaz Sat pg 2 'Creation of new BiH image' by Fena – BiH Foreign Affairs Minister Mladen Ivanic said the most important fact concerning the opening of the Old Bridge is the creation of a new image of BiH, which was rather bad in the past. "Such an event is a wonderful manifestation of possibilities to present BiH in an entirely different light", Ivanic said.

Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Europe passes a history exam in Mostar and BiH', inset 'Covic: It is not just a construction, it has a soul' – BH Presidency member Dragan Covic stated that an opening of the bridge meant extremely much to him, especially as he was born just several meters away from it. Inset 'Paravac: Elite of the world means support for BiH' – BH Presidency member Borislav Paravac commented that the Old Bridge for him signified a symbol of joint life of three peoples in BiH.

Vecernji List, Sat, pg 'Old Bridge connects again', by Ivica Pjanic – VL carries an op-ed in which the author notes: "By connecting the banks of Neretva river, the Old Bridge is sending a message that perhaps there is still a hope for building of new European future".

Dnevni List, Sat, pg 11 'Old Bridge in recent history', by Pejo Gasparevic – DL editorial comments the statement by the HR Paddy Ashdown who said that the reconstructed Old Bridge could be a foundation stone for reconstruction of BiH as a multi-ethnic state. Gasparevic says the statement by HR Ashdown means that the reconstructed Old Bridge should not be seen as a mono-ethnic (bridge) nor claimed by anyone (read Bosniaks). "Multi-ethnic BiH and possibly non-multi-ethnic Old Bridge would not go hand in hand", writes Gasparevic.

Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'Old Bridge, old love' by Amela Rebac – NN editorial says that Old Bridge Opening ceremony was a "D" day for Mostarians.

Oslobodjenje Sat pg 2 'Confetti and reality' by Gojko Beric – "New Old Bridge opens the perspective of the normal life in Mostar, but only in the sphere of symbolism. Everything else is in the hands of politicians and citizens of this, perhaps in the hearts of people irreversibly divided city," reads editorial.

Dnevni Avaz Sat pg 2 'Pride and property of the entire world' op-ed by Sanja Skuletic – "With its return, [the Bride] showed to entire world that it is possible to unite not only East and West, but South and North," reads editorial.

SFOR arrests Mladic's personal assistant

RHB Fri, BHTV 1 Fri, RTRS Fri, Oslobodjenje Sat pg 3 'Mladic's assistant arrested', mentioned on cover, by V.Du., Vecernji List, Sat, pg 6 'Rajko Banduka, Ratko Mladic's associate, arrested', by bs, Dnevni List, Sat, pg 17 'Retired RS Army officer Rajko Banduka arrested', not signed, Slobodna Dalmacija, Sat, pg 7 'Former Mladic's secretary arrested', by A. Macanovic, Nezavisne Novine cover and pg 6 'Former Mladic's secretary arrested'; Glas Srpske cover page story 'With bees against Dayton' [NB: headline refers to Banduka's hobby as beekeeper] – SFOR on Friday morning in Bijeljina detained a retired RS Army Sergeant Major, Rajko Banduka, who, during the war, assumed the position of the Secretary to the RS Army General Staff, Ratko Mladic. SFOR announced he was arrested on grounded suspicion he was involved in anti-Dayton activities.

Ashdown says
RS responsible for arrest of war crimes suspects

RTRS Fri, Oslobodjenje Sat pg 3 'I am not authorized to abolish RS' by Onasa, Dnevni Avaz Sat pg 11 'BiH Politicians can rewrite DPA', Nezavisne Novine pg 5 'I am not authorized to abolish RS' – In an interview to the Vienna daily "Die Presse", HR Paddy Ashdown stated that SFOR and NATO should not be criticised for the fact that Radovan Karadzic and Ratko Mladic are still are at large adding that RS authorities are responsible for that. Ashdown reminded that RS to date has not extradited a single person indicted for war crimes. Asked why he doesn't apply more pressure on RS officials, Ashdown noted he was limited by legal procedures.

OHR on arrest of war crimes suspects

Oslobodjenje Sat pg 7 'Mikerevic's excuse for failing to arrest Karadzic' by Fena, Dnevni Avaz Sat pg 9 'Mikerevic follows the tradition of finding excuses for failing to arrest Karadzic', Glas Srpske pg 3 'Mikerevic following "tradition"', Dnevni List, Sat, pg 17 'Mikerevic uses excuses not to arrest Karadzic', not signed – Answering to the statement by RS Prime Minister Dragan Mikerevic in which he invited HR Paddy Ashdown to disclose where is Radovan Karadzic, OHR spokesperson Oleg Milisic on Friday said that representatives of RS "have been coming up with excuses for not arresting Radovan Karadzic for many years now, and Dragan Mikerevic sadly appears to be following in this tradition. Until the leaders of Serbs in BiH start showing they take the international rule of law seriously, and are prepared to fulfil BiH's international obligations to The Hague, they will remain responsible for preventing this country integrating further into NATO and the European Union."

BHTV 1 Fri, FTV Fri – "As long as RS politicians, leaders of Bosnian Serbs, do not understand that cooperation with the ICTY is their obligation towards the international law and Dayton agreement, they will be responsible for preventing BiH getting closer to Euro-Atlantic integrations," stated Vedran Persic, OHR spokesman.

SFOR interrogates Veljko Borovcanin	Oslobodjenje Sat back page 'SF0R interrogated Veljko Borovcanin' by Fena, Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'SF0R interrogated Veljko Borovcanin' – SRNA reports that SF0R on Friday interrogated Veljko Borovcanin, the former Serb Sarajevo PSC Chief, whom High Representative removed from position in February this year. He is on the list of persons suspected of giving assistance to the war crime suspects at large, especially Radovan Karadzic. Borovcanin said: "If any further summon is sent, I would respond to it. I will do all I can to prove my innocence and to ensure truth comes to the surface."

Cavic on RS obligation to arrest PIFWCs and removals

Nezavisne Novine pgs 4-6 in NN supplement "Revija" 'We must destroy taboos of the past' by Dragan Jerinic – This is a lengthy interview with Dragan Cavic, RS President, who stresses that anybody living in illusion that the issue on cooperation with the ICTY can be easily forgotten is lying. He notes that the issue on cooperation with the ICTY should move from the sphere of daily political issue into the institutions. On this he emphasises: "Authorities in charge must do their job. There is no space for politics here." On HR's decision on removals of 59 officials, he reiterates his stance and view it was a sort of political purge. He doubts any possibility that possible removals of SDA ministers from RS Government could cause crisis, noting if crisis took place, it would last for too long. RTRS on Saturday carried statements given in an interview to NN.

RSNA Speaker Stojicic on RS cooperation with ICTY	Nezavisne Novine pg 5 'RS should not run away from cooperation with the Hague Tribunal'; EuroBlic RSpG 2 'The Hague should not be a complex' – Dusan Stojicic, RS NA Speaker, in an interview to RS NA news agency said that future RS approach to ICTY would ensure that Carla del Ponte, in her next report to UN SC, would be able to say that BiH is cooperating with the ICTY. And this would meet pre-requisites for BiH admission into PfP. He said: "If we do out part of the job, I am of the view that in the 10th year after the signing of Dayton Agreement, we would be admitted into PfP and launch talks on Stabilisation and Association Agreement."

SCG President on Mladic	RTRS Sat, Oslobodjenje Sun pg 3 “All Mladic’s associates unders surveillance’ by Onasa – President of Serbia and Montenegro, Svetozar Marovic stated that Ratko Mladic is not hiding in military facilities of SCG Army in Serbia, adding that Mladic’s all former and present associates have been under surveillance. While in Mostar, Marovic also said that SCG must either proved that Mladic was not in its territory or to do everything possible to bring him before the justice [in case Mladic is in SCG]. Marovic also said that he also said this to Chair of the BiH Council of Ministers Adnan Terzic during their meeting.

It means that entities in BiH have 7 days to sell surplus weapons to foreign customers because, starting 1 January 2005, all the weapons that exceed the needs of the BiH armed forces will be declared surplus. Eventually, the surplus weapons will have to be destroyed. Estimates say that BiH armed forces need 92.000 of small and light weapons, which means that at the moment, some 370.000 pieces could be declared as surplus weapons.

SFOR founds arsenal of weapons in a house of a police officer from Lukavac

FTV Fri, Dnevni Avaz Sat pg 49 'Arsenal of weapons and mines found in the house of police officer Saudin Celikovic', mentioned on cover 'Arsenal of weapons found in a house of police officers', by H. Calic – SFOR troops, in a presence of EUPM, on Thursday searched a house owned by Saudin Celikovic, an officers of the Lukavac police station, residing in village of Gornja Dobosnica. They found a large quantity of firearms and explosive devices. Celikovic has been kept in detention, while SFOR confiscated weapons found.

Oslobodjenje Sun cover page story, pg 7 'Whose arms, mines and mortar shells was hiding a police officer from Lukavac?' by Avdo Avdic – Daily carries that its well informed source close to investigating team says that the investigators were stunned with the quantity of arms found in Celikovic's house. It is interesting, says the source, that Interior Ministry knew nothing of its police officers possessing such arsenal and added that SFOR carried out the inspection following an anonymous call. Source adds that there is a chance that the weapons belongs to an organization which was hiding it with Celikovic, fearing Harvest operation. Daily also brings a statement by Celikovic's wife who says that "Saudin is a good man and different people brought weapons to him to hide it from SFOR."

Miletic on terrorism in BiH

Vecernji List, Sun, front and pg 3 'Scandalous: As many as 1100 terrorists in Federation', by Robert Soldo – The daily was told by the Director of FBiH MoI Police Administration, Zlatko Miletic, that there were around 1100 people in the FBiH, who are in some way connected to terrorism, mostly Islamic terrorists. The number also includes members of the 'Ravnogorski Chetnik movement', who are, according to Miletic, active in Mostar too. Miletic did not explain what 'the chetniks' are doing in Mostar, he only mentioned that they were violating the constitutional-legal organization of the state. Miletic also mentioned that the Police did not have concrete evidence on existence of Al Qaeda in the FBiH, but he is sure there are organized groups of people, who, for example, committed crimes in Travnik. In that context, Miletic says there are two suspects and 12 of their associates for the murder of a local Croat, one Ante Valjan. "The direct problem are naturalized persons of African-Asian origin, and 741 have been awarded BiH citizenship. We determined that 70% of them have forged documents, for which some 20 persons from FBiH could be held responsible, including some public persons, because they made it happen", stressed Miletic. Finally, Miletic noted that last year there was a case of planning of politically motivated murder, however, Miletic says he will talk about some other time.

Oslobodjenje Sun pg 5 'Police prevented assassination of a politician', mentioned on cover, by A. Omeragic – At the press conference on Old bridge security, Miletic also confirmed the presence of about 1100 people linked to Islamic terrorism in FBiH.

Ashdown sanctions HDZ over education	BHTV 1 Sat, RHB Sat, FTV Sat, RTRS Sat, Oslobodjenje Sun pg 5 'Punished with 140.000 KM' by Fena, Dnevni Avaz Sun pg 2 'HDZ money to be directed to education', Vecernji List, Sun, pg 2 'Money from HDZ to education', by Eldina Medunjanin, Dnevni List, Sun, pg 2 'Fines against HDZ go to education', mentioned on front by NINA, Slobodna Dalmacija, Sun, pg 12 'Re-allocation of HDZ's money to benefit of education', by F – The High Representative, Paddy Ashdown, has written to West Herzegovina Canton Prime Minister Viktor Lasic, Central Bosnia Canton Finance Minister Josip Kvasina, and Canton 10 Prime Minister Stipe Pelivan, to outline how the reallocation of the funds resulting from the deduction of budgetary funding intended for the HDZ in their respective Cantons will be made. The High Representative underlines in his letters that the accumulated balance of money from the HDZ's fines should be used to advance European education standards in the respective Cantons. The High Representative has instructed the Cantonal Governments to establish temporary Commissions under the chairmanship of the Cantonal Education Ministers, and composed of civil servants and prominent educators. These Commissions will solicit bids for the funding of special projects or exceptional purchases by schools, educational charities or other institutions working with or on behalf of schoolchildren in the Canton.

Ashdown, Patten meet students in Mostar

Oslobodjenje Sat pg 3 'Who will lead you to Europe?' by Onasa, Dnevni Avaz Sat pg 4 'It is a symbol for future', Dnevni List, Sat, pg 12 'Ashdown to young people: You decide about future of BiH', by V. Soldo – The High Representative for BiH/EU Special Representative, Paddy Ashdown, and EU External Relations Commissioner, Chris Patten, met with students of two Mostar universities on Friday to talk about current problems in BiH, process of integration of BiH into European integration and reform of higher education. In his message to the Mostar students, HR Ashdown stated: "You must have more trust in yourself. You are young and you must become angrier, protest in the streets if something that you are not supporting is happening. You have to be less complacent. Also, you have to get involved in the general life of the country. The current generation cannot lead BiH into the future. They are focused on what had happened". Representative of the Students' Association of University of Mostar (Sveuciliste, Croat pre-dominant), Mario Skocibusic, stated the Association would soon come up with a proposal how to solve the current situation in the area of higher education.

RHB Fri – "We had an extremely good discussion. The students we have been talking to are the future of BiH and I hope they would get involved in the process of their own Government. That's what should happen in an open European democracy," stated Patten following the meeting with students.
