Ashdown's press conference/PIC Communique	Herceg Bosna Radio, BHTV, FTV, RTRS on Friday, Dnevni List, Sat, front and pg 3 'Republika Srpska remains after Istanbul Summit', by Indira Tabucic, Vecernji List, Sat, pg 2 'Republika Srpska will not wait long for my answer', by Eldina Medunjanin, Slobodna Dalmacija, Sat, back pg 'Ashdown: I will punish Republika Srpska', by E, Saturday's Oslobodjenje pg 5, mentioned on cover 'On consequences for RS after Istanbul', Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'It is unacceptable that BiH future is ruined due to RS' – Following a two-day meeting of political directors of Peace Implementation Council, the High Representative for BiH, Paddy Ashdown, stated that topics of the meeting were fulfilling of requirements for BiH joining the Partnership for Peace programme and possible measures in case NATO decides not to invite BiH to join the PfP at the NATO Istanbul Summit. "I will consider all the possible measures and take corresponding decisions very soon after we have received a reply from Istanbul", stated HR Ashdown commenting on possible speculations in the media that dealt with sanctions against the RS because the entity failed to arrest war crimes suspects. HR Ashdown also noted it was unacceptable that the country's held hostage by some people in the RS, also criticizing statements of some RS leaders who claimed that "it was not tragic" if BiH did not join PfP in Istanbul. In that context, HR Ashdown noted that measures against people who are responsible for BiH not joining the PfP did not mean the abolishment of the RS. On the other hand, HR Ashdown and PIC political directors are very happy with the course of reforms in last few months. Nezavisne Novine, Saturday, pg. 3 'Sanctions for RS authority' by A. Susic mentioned on cover 'Ashdown announced sanctions to RS authority', Glas Srpske, Saturday, pg. 3 'Ashdown threatens with punishments' by SRNA mentioned on cover 'Ashdown threatens with punishments', Vecernje Novosti, Saturday, pg. 4 'I will not abolish RS' by Dusan Stojakovic also reported on the HR's press conference. According to the dailies, Ashdown could not say whether SDS President Dragan Kalinic and Interior Minister Zoran Djeric would be among first to be sanctioned or removed. Nezavisne Novine, Saturday, pg. 3 carries the inset 'Paddy Ashdown: Nobody is talking about abolishing of RS' – HR Paddy Ashdown reiterated that nobody was 'talking about abolishing of RS'. 'Citizens of RS too are victims of irresponsible authority of RS. There will be two principles of OHR in the forthcoming period of time. One is that we must make the work of the most responsible ones for failure to arrest PIFWCs more difficult. The other one is to abet and encourage SDS and others to finally start cooperating in order to be able to bring the suspects before the face of justice', HR Ashdown stated. Sat Oslobodjenje pg 5 'On consequences for RS after Istanbul', ONASA – The PIC Steering Board was briefed on a range of Rule of Law reforms, including the War Crimes Chamber project and initiatives to tackle organized crime in BiH. The Steering Board welcomed Prime Minister Terzic's call for a Police Restructuring Commission. The Steering Board welcomed the significant progress that has been made in Defense and Intelligence Reform but expressed dissatisfaction with the fact that, just days ahead of NATO's Istanbul Summit, BiH has failed to meet a key condition for participation in Partnership for Peace, namely cooperation with the ICTY. The work of the RS Srebrenica Commission and the recent statement of RS President Dragan Cavic are welcome positive steps that may represent a significant turning point in postwar reconciliation in BiH. The Steering Board, however, emphasized that President Cavic's statement must be followed by deeds including the arrest of ICTY indictees. The RS has failed to locate or apprehend even one war-crimes indictee in the nine years since the Dayton Accord. The RS, an Entity of BiH guaranteed under Dayton, is failing to carry out a key obligation under Dayton and international law, for which the relevant individuals and institutions must be held accountable. The Political Directors of the Peace Implementation Council Steering Board met in Sarajevo on 24 and 25 June under the chairmanship of the High Representative, Paddy Ashdown. Representatives of the BiH authorities led by Chairman of the Council of Ministers Adnan Terzic participated in part of the meeting.

Economic/Social issues

VL finds out plans of FBiH Govt re
old savings

Vecernji List, Sat, front and pg 3, '1000 marks for each old saving', by Zdenko Jurilj – According to plans of ministers in the FBiH Government and representatives of the OHR and IMF, the old savings worth several hundreds million of KMs should be solved in a way that old savers receive 1000 KMs per each account, whilst the rest of the debt would be placed under a 10-year moratorium. Following the moratorium, in 20-years time, the rest of savings would be regulated by issuing securities, which could be used to buy stocks in BiH companies. Apparently, the plan has been heavily criticized by all the MPs in the FBiH Parliament. "It is impossible, it is a nonsense that even the biggest enemy would not come up with. All the presidents of caucuses who discussed the issue of old savings with Principal Deputy High Representative, Donald Hays, opposed the proposal. That will happen next Tuesday, at the next session of FBiH Parliament, when the MPs have to officially declare themselves about the proposal", commented the president of HDZ caucus in the FBiH Parliament, Ivan Madunic.

Dnevni List, Sat, pg 5 'Savers want stocks in telekoms and Elektroprivredas', by Ivica Glibusic – Notes that associations that gather old savers request that old savings, which were planned to be paid out in bonds, be paid out in stocks in (public) telecommunications companies and Elektroprivredas.
