Reactions to arrest of Marko Boskic

FTV Fri by Salih Brkic – FTV brings comments to the arrest of Marko Boskic. “When it comes to BiH this is another absurdity, as justice sooner reaches people in USA then in BiH where everyone calls upon the alleged cooperation with ICTY... I firmly believe that without international forces not even one war criminal will be arrested in RS territory,” Sadik Ahmetovic, Vice President of the Srebrenica Municipal Assembly, commented. DA interview with Amor
Masovic

Dnevni Avaz Sat pg 5 'More and more we receive information on mass graves from Serbs' by Edina Sarac – In an interview to DA, the Chief of FBiH Commission for Missing Persons, Amor Masovic, talks about the source of information on newly discovered mass graves: "Smaller portion of information are old [information] that we were checking and discovered only now where the mass graves are. However, it is interesting that lately Serbs living in smaller BiH entity give information to us all the time. I have to say that those information are precise, so we don't have to waste time checking the field." Masovic also commented on statements by officials from Serbia and Montenegro for necessity of withdrawing BiH's lawsuit against SCG by saying that there is no reason for BiH to withdraw the lawsuit, and stressed that positive verdict for BiH would probably burden SCG to pay for war compensations to all three peoples for decades, but that it would bring moral satisfaction to all BiH citizens. As for the change of ICTY rule regarding the location of trials for war crimes, Masovic says that such decision would not harm justice as long as cases are not transferred to the states directly included in events from 1992 to 1995.

Oslobodjenje
op-ed on 'non-existent' mass
graves

Oslobodjenje Sun pg 2 'Non existent mass graves' op-ed by Senka Kurtovic – "It sounds almost impossible that the FBiH Commission [for Missing Persons] was given wrong information [on mass graves sites]. But, it seems that it is just like that... Can we be optimistic and say that false information was not given intentionally... After Srebrenica Commission was established with such difficulties,... did RS authorities intentionally deleted real and put non-existing mass graves. As bitter as it sounds, it is not impossible. In all these, claim by Masovic, that lately Commission is contacted by Serbs living in RS who give information, is comforting. That gives hope that not everything in this poor country is deceit, lie and hopelessness," reads editorial.

regarding
place of trials

Vecernji List Sun front, pg 3 'The Hague is dividing BiH judiciary' by D. Ravic – The ICTY Office in Sarajevo will forward to competent ICTY bodies in The Hague demands of a few Associations from BiH that are against changes and amendments to the book of rules on the procedure and evidence referring to transferring of bills of indictment to the other court. VL also carries a few commentaries on this issue. Lawyer Senka Nozica believes that after the ICTY ceases to exist the International Criminal Court should take over cases that the ICTY has not processed. President of the Helsinki Board for Human Rights in the RS Branko Todorovic says that the BiH judiciary, as well as, the judicial bodies in neighbouring countries have shown that they are not capable to run complex cases such as trials against war criminals. Vice President of the Association of RS Inmates Slavko Jovicic doubts that domestic courts would be bale to run the court procedure properly. On the other hand, assistant to the RS Justice Minister Mladen Mandic believes that the BiH Court is able to process war crime indictees.

BHT 1 Sat, Dnevni Avaz Sun pg 3 'Office of the Tribunal will pass objections to the Hague' by Fena – ICTY office in Sarajevo announced that the changes of ICTY regulations will not allow the accused persons to chose in which country they want to be prosecuted. BHT 1 feature on RSNA action plan on cooperation with ICTY	BHT 1 Fri by Boris Gagic – BHT 1 says that Analysts and opposition parties feel that RS Government has obligation to arrest war criminals, even without RS National Assembly passing the Action Plan and this issue will be the most important one for new RS Minister of Interior, who should be appointed in September. According to unofficial information, with this action plan, police prepares to arrest war criminals. Political analyst, Tanja Topic, comments that there are too many papers on this issue in RS without any concrete action. Igor Gajic, journalist of “Novi Reporter” said that this action plan is just a marketing statement. As for opposition, they said they will not regard this as an election trick if the Government implements the plan soon. “I think that the domestic public, even in RS, is tired of hearing these stories about cooperation with ICTY, about arrests of war criminals... Finally, for once, this Government [should] arrest one suspect from the ICTY list,” Slobodan Popovic, official of SDP, commented. “Who ever becomes the Interior Minister, his first obligation will be meeting obligations towards ICTY,” Dragan Cavic, RS President, said.
