Sarajevo – SFOR Presser – OHR spokesman Murphy announced Croatian President, Tudjman's one day visit to West Mostar, BiH tomorrow where he will attend the opening ceremony of an Aluminium factory. Tudjman will not visit the BiH capitol, but Mr. Murphy did not want to give any further comments on that. Tudjman's host will be, as it was already decided at the last Presidency session, BiH Presidency member Zubak. Murphy said that this visit might help with the capturing of those responsible for Mostar incident on Feb. 10. He also criticised the CoM work, accusing the Ministers for slowness in adopting a number of important laws which influence the postponement of the donors conference. IPTF suspects that the RS police are involved in the latest incident in Gajevo when the last Bosniak house was burnt down. Therefore, the IPTF started their own investigation as of today. The RS authorities were informed of this decision.
