Mostar/Capljina – Mostar SFOR troops deputy refuted the claims of the news agency STINA about the delay of police establishment process in Her/Ner canton. Canton Minister of Internal Affairs deputy, Dziho also refuted this claims.

Fifteen out of 35 Bosniak policemen returned to their work in Capljina. As Dziho said, the main problem seems to be the scorn of Bosniak police officials, and treating of them as ordinary constables. As Croat police representative said, the reason for this is a lack of information's, what was solved during the day.

As suggested by an IPTF officer, 10 policemen, allocated in Prozor, did not go to their work. IPTF considers that the situation in Prozor is very tense after the incident few days ago.

Banja Luka – After the talks with SFOR Commander Gen. Eric Shinseki on the current events in Banja Luka, RS President in the BiH Presidency Momcilo Krajisnik addressed the press this evening. Krajisnik told the press that he has warned Gen. Shinseki that immediate measures have to be taken to normalize the situation and restore the order. Overall, in his statement Krajisnik underlined that the current developments could further aggravate the situation in the RS. In rather strong words, he declared that the RS President was not empowered neither to dismiss nor to appoint police officials and appealed to RS policemen to disobey those officials, which he called "usurpers".

Having promised that a solution will be found in a diplomatic discourse, Krajisnik related to the international community as not being properly informed on competencies of the RS President. 2'50"

Banja Luka – In the early morning today SFOR troops in a full combat readiness escorted by two choppers seized the State Security building, the Police Academy and all police stations in the town. After a forceful entry, SFOR troops have thrown out all legal employees of the RS Interior Ministry and allowed irregular police forces to enter the buildings. A group of citizens who witnessed the event strongly protected, said the report. (The footage showed a small group of elderly citizens who were shouting and protesting. One of senior police officials spoke lamentably before the cameras that he was thrown out of his office after 30 years of service).

Banja Luka – At its meeting today the SDS City Board in Banja

Luka appealed to RS citizens to preserve peace and their state, since the RS has come close to an abyss of evil opened up by a woman with no sense of balance. (The footage showed SDS deputies in a conference hall with Radovan Karadzic's picture hanging on the wall). The report carried extensively Momcilo Krajisnik's address to deputies in which he reiterated that President Plavsic was not authorized to dismiss police officials. He also denied that he personally called SFOR troops to intervene, but thanked SFOR for preventing bloodshed, adding that those who want to create a conflict with SFOR will be disappointed.
