OHR Spokesman Murphy, commenting on the Croat side failing to arrest three policemen who were found guilty for the Mostar incident by IPTF, said that the international community could lose its credibility if its requests are not respected. He said that the Croat refusal is causing them serious headaches.

Sarajevo – CoM session – Ministers discussed the forthcoming Brcko conference in Vienna, although they were supposed to solve problems with regard to the QSP. CoM will not attend the Vienna conference because the OHR did not even send them a formal invitation. The OHR invited only Foreign Minister Prlic who will not represent the CoM, Co-chair Silajdzic said. Silajdzic also said that he talked with HR deputy Steiner about this problem, and Steiner promised him that he would inform HR Bildt about it. However, Silajdzic said, Bildt did not find it necessary to inform or consult the CoM regarding the issue. Therefore, BiH, that is, the CoM will not be represented in Vienna, Silajdzic stressed. The CoM will discuss the QSP and adopt Diplomatic Immunity and Foreign Trade Policy Laws at its next session.

Great Britain – A BiH delegation headed by Foreign Minister

Prlic met British Defence Minister Portillo and Foreign Minister Bonsor. Prlic emphasised the need for foreign peace troops to stay longer in BiH to preserve peace in the region.

Banja Luka – Federation President and member of the BiH Presidency Zubak met President Plavsic in Banja Luka yesterday. Zubak's assessment was that the status of the Croat minority in Banja Luka is satisfactory. Plavsic expressed the RS position saying that Croats in the RS will have their all rights in accordance with the BH and the RS Constitutions. They also talked about the Brcko arbitration decision, the Vienna conference, and the forthcoming local elections. Zubak was interested in the HDZ party's participation in the elections in Banja Luka. Plavsic said that there were no obstacles for HDZ participation in the elections if they were registered. They also agreed on mutual POWs exchange and mass grave exhumations. After the meeting Zubak met local Croat representatives and the Catholic Bishop Komarica.

The US Federal Court for Human Rights is conducting a trial against war criminal Karadzic who is accused by victims of the BiH war. Karadzic's lawyer, a former US state prosecutor Clark, sent a letter to the Court saying that Karadzic told him to give up defence because Karadzic cannot defend himself in the USA. Karadzic representatives denied the US Court jurisdiction so the Court decided that this case presented a political gesture which is inappropriate for the Court decision. Therefore, the Appealing Court which raised the charge against Karadzic in '93, will continue with the proceedings against him on the request of the civil victims of the BiH war. This Court decided that Karadzic could be charged at both the individual and political level.
